

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

 ‘ Majesty, it appeared that the Price of Oats, as well as that ‘ of Pease, was still rising, and that the Crop of Oats, and also ‘ the Crops of Pease and Beans of the present Year, had failed to ‘ a considerable Extent, and that a Deficiency in the Crop of ‘ Potatoes was also apprehended in some Parts of the United ‘ Kingdom; and that if the Importation for Home Consumption ‘ of Oats and Oatmeal, and of Rye, Pease, and Beans, were not ‘ immediately permitted, there was great Cause to fear that much ‘ Distress might ensue to all Classes of His Majesty’s Subjects; ‘ and further reciting, that under the Acts aforesaid no Foreign ‘ Grain of the above Description, whatever might be the respective ‘ Average Prices of the same, could be admitted to Entry for ‘ Home Consumption till after the Fifteenth Day of November in ‘ the present Year, when the next Quarterly Average, by which ‘ the Admission of such Grain is regulated, would be made up, ‘ according to the Provisions of the said Acts; His Majesty, with ‘ the Advice of His Privy Council, did order, and it was thereby ‘ accordingly ordered, that Foreign Oats and Oatmeal, Rye, Pease, ‘ and Beans, whether warehoused or otherwise, should and might,
 ‘ from the Date of the said Order in Council, be permitted to be ‘ entered in the Ports of the United Kingdom and of the Isle ‘ of Man for Home Consumption, provided the Parties making ‘ Entry of any such Foreign Oats, Oatmeal, Rye, Pease, or Beans; ‘ should give Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of ‘ the

‘ the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs, for the Payment ‘ of any Duties, not exceeding in Amount the Duties thereafter ‘ mentioned, in case Parliament should authorize the Levy and ‘ Receipt thereof; that is to say, Oats, per Quarter, Two Shil‘ lings; Oatmeal, per Boll, Two Shillings and Two Pence; Rye, ‘ Pease and Beans, per Quarter, Three Shillings and Six Pence;
 ‘ and His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, did thereby ‘ further order, and it was accordingly ordered, that such Per‘ mission to enter Oats and Oatmeal, Rye, Pease, and Beans, for ‘ Home Consumption, on the Conditions aforesaid, should con‘ tinue in force from the Date thereof until the Expiration of ‘ Forty Days, to be reckoned from the Day of the next Meeting ‘ of Parliament, unless the Parliament should previously to the ‘ Expiration of the said Forty Days make Provision to the con‘ trary: And whereas it is expedient that all Persons advising or ‘ issuing the said Order in Council, and all Persons who have ‘ acted under or in obedience to the same, should be indemnified; Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Order in Council shall be and be deemed valid and of due Force in Law; and that all personal Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Prosecutions and Proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be hereafter prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons, for having advised or issued or carried into Execution the said Order in Council, be, are and shall be discharged and made void by virtue of this Act; and that if any Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons, for or by reason of any Act, Matter, or Thing advised, commanded, appointed or done, or forborne to be done, under or in relation to the said Order in Council, he, she or they may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any Action or Suit so to be prosecuted or commenced in England or Ireland shall become nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict shall pass against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his, her, or their Double Costs, for which he, she or they shall have the like Remedy as in Cases where the Costs by Law are given to Defendants; and if any such Action or Suit as aforesaid shall be commenced or prosecuted in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Court before which such Action or Suit shall be

C A P. IV.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

[21st March 1827.]

Number of Forces 87,859.

WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: And Whereas it is judged necessary by His Majesty and this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be continued for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of His Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of Eighty seven thousand three hundred and fifty nine Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for those Regiments: And Whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this realm by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known

and

‘ and established Laws of this Realm ; yet nevertheless, it being ‘ requisite for the retaining all the before mentioned Forces in ‘ their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that ‘ Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His ‘ Majesty’s Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy ‘ Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow ;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be he shall be commanded to defend ; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, or Post to deliver up to the Enemy, or to abandon the same ; or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer or others to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend ; or shall leave his Post before relieved ; or shall be found sleeping on his Post ; or shall hold Correspondence with or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs, or Tokens in any Manner or Way whatsoever ; or shall treat or enter into any Terms with such Rebel or Enemy, without His Majesty’s Licence, or Licence of the General or Chief Commander ; or shall vice ; all and every Person and Persons so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within this Realm, or in any other of His Majesty’s Dominions, or in Foreign Parts, upon Land or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court-martial shall be awarded.

‘ XLIX. And Whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was amongst other things enacted and declared, that no Officer, Soldier or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Yeoman of the Guard of Battle Axes, nor any Officer commanding the said Yeoman, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any Time thereafter have, receive, or be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Sea-port Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army or any considerable Part thereof should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another, or during such Time or Times as he or they should be on their March as aforesaid: And Whereas the Barracks of Ireland are not at present sufficient to lodge all the Forces upon its Military Establishment: And Whereas it may be necessary to station Part of the Troops in Places where there are not Barracks, or not sufficient Barracks, to hold them; Be it enacted, and it is hereby declared and agreed, That it shall and may be lawful, notwithstanding the said recited Act, to and for the Constables and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, Villages, and other Places in Ireland, and in their Default or Abquartered upon such other Person or Persons as he or they shall see Cause, and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

‘ L. And as very great Detriment and Inconvenience arise to the Service from the dispersing and billeting of Soldiers when on a March at a great Distance from the Place or Places where they are meant to be quartered, and contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said last-recited Act, and by reason of which they are placed wide of their intended Route for the next Day’s March ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them be billeted above One Mile from the Place or Places mentioned in the Route.

‘ LL. And Whereas Soldiers are often billeted and quartered on the March unequally, and to the Prejudice of some of His Majesty’s Subjects, by reason that the Places mentioned in the Route are on the Borders of Counties, and that the Keepers of Houses in which Soldiers may be quartered being out of the Parish or Place mentioned in the Route, although in the immediate Vicinity thereof, refuse to receive such Soldiers upon Billets granted by the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, or other Persons of such Places to whom the quartering of Soldiers belongs ;’ For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That in any such Case it shall be lawful for the Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or other Person to whom the quartering of Soldiers in any Place mentioned in any Route on the Border of any County shall belong, and he and they is and are hereby required to quarter and billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in any such Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place ; and all Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Provisions in this Act contained, in relation to the billeting and quartering of Soldiers, shall extend and be applied to all Billets so granted, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, and in like Manner in every respect, as if such Houses were locally situate within the Place mentioned in the Route : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize or empower any Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or other Person, to billet or quarter Soldiers out of the County to which they belong, in any Case in which any Constable, Tithingman, or Headborough, or other Person of the adjoining County, shall be present, and undertake to billet and quarter the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County.

LII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor for the Time being of Ireland to depute, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, some proper Person to sign Routes for the marching of any of His Majesty’s Forces in Ireland, in the Name of such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor.

‘ on Furlough granted to them by their Commanding Officers are ‘ sometimes prevented by Sickness or other unavoidable Casualty ‘ from returning to their Duty before the Expiration of the Time ‘ limited by such Furlough, and Doubts have arisen whether in CXXX. And to the End that honest Creditors, who aim only at the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from Persons entering into and listing in His Majesty's Service, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but on the contrary may be assisted and forwarded in their Suits; and instead of an Arrest, which may at once hurt the Service, and occasion great Expence and Delay to themselves, may be enabled to proceed in a more easy and cheap Method; be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Person or Persons so entered, or left at his or their last Place of Residence before such listing, to file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to entitle such Plaintiff to proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and to have an Execution thereupon, other than against the Body or Bodies of him or them so listed as aforesaid; this Act, or any thing herein, or any former Law or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Pence, or Sixpence, according to the Size of the respective Carriages as aforesaid, unless any further Sums, not exceeding the Amount hereinbefore specified, shall have been previously fixed and ordered by the Justices at any General Sessions of the Peace assembled as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons appointed by such Constable or Petty Constable, to provide and furnish any Carriage and Man, shall refuse or neglect to provide the same; or any other Person or Persons whatsoever shall wilfully do any Act or Thing whereby the Execution of any such Warrant or Warrants shall be hindered or frustrated, every such Constable, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings, to the Use of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes adjoining to the Parish where any such Offence shall be committed, as shall be fixed upon by the Justice or Justices by whom such Offence shall be inquired of, heard, and determined; and all and every such Offence and Offences shall be inquired of, heard, and fully determined by Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace dwelling in or near the Place where such Offence shall be committed, who have hereby Power to cause the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner.

‘ XLVIII. And Whereas in consequence of certain Exemptions from Tolls expressly allowed by several Acts for His Majesty's Forces on their March or on Duty, and for the Horses and Carriages attending them, Doubts have arisen whether in all Cases not so exempted the Officers and Marines, and the Carriages and Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, may not be charged with the Payment of Tolls; Therefore, for obviating such Doubts, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all His Majesty's Officers and Marines, being in proper Uniform, and their Horses, on Duty or on their March, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, and also all Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, when conveying the Officers, Marines, Servants, Women, Children, or other Persons of or belonging to His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage, and other Equipage of or belonging to His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces on their March, or returning therefrom, were and are and shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already made or hereafter to be made for Persons, Horses, Carriages, or Vessels passing Turnpike Roads, Bridges, Rivers, Canals, or Locks, unless by such Act it has been or shall be expressly provided that the said Officers, Royal Marines, Carriages, Horses, and Vessels are and shall be liable equally with others to the Duties and Tolls therein authorized to be demanded and taken.

Officers and Marines, &c. and Carriages employed in His Majesty's Service, exempted from Payment of Toll.

‘ XLIX. And Whereas the respective Sums of Money by this Act appointed to be paid to the Constables, by the Officers demanding such Carriages, may not in many Cases be sufficient to answer the Charge and Expence of providing the same, ‘ whereby

Treasurer of the County to repay the Constable's extraordinary Charge.

‘ whereby the said Constables may be frequently at great Charges, over and above what is received by them of the said Officers, to the great Burthen of the Townships in which they are respectively Constables, or else the Persons furnishing such Carriages may be grievously oppressed;’ To prevent which, and that such Overplus Charge may be borne by each County or Riding at the general Charge of such County or Riding, be it further enacted, That the Treasurer or Treasurers of each respective County or Riding shall, without Fee or Reward, pay unto such Constable all and every such reasonable Sum or Sums of Money so by him paid or laid out for such Carriages, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the Marine Officer requiring such Carriages, out of the Public Stock of such County or Riding, according to such Rates, Orders, Rules, and Directions as the said Justices of the Peace in their Quarter Sessions assembled, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, make, direct, and appoint (which Orders shall be made without Fee or Reward); Regard being always had to the Season of the Year, and the Length and Condition of the Roads through which such Carriages are to travel.

The Money for that Purpose how to be raised.

L. And in case the said Public Stock of the County or Riding be not sufficient (over and above the other Purposes for which it was raised) to satisfy the extraordinary Charge of Carriages before mentioned, it is hereby further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace in the General Quarter Sessions shall have Power from time to time to raise Money upon the respective Counties or Ridings, in such Manner as they now raise Monies for building or repairing County Gaols and Bridges, to satisfy the said extraordinary Charges of Carriages.

No Waggon, &c. liable to carry above 20 Cwt.

Carriages in Scotland how to be provided.

LII. And be it further enacted, That the Carriages for the Service of the Royal Marine Forces quartered or marched in Scotland shall be provided in like Manner and at the Rates, and the Furnisher of such Carriages shall be paid as was directed by the Laws in Force in Scotland at the Time of the Union, with regard to furnishing Carriages for Land Forces: Provided always, that a Cart with One or more Horses, for which the Furnisher shall demand or receive Nine Pence per Mile, shall be required to carry Fifteen Hundred Weight at the least.

Marines' Wives, &c. not to be quartered without Consent.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer, Military or Civil, by this Act authorized to quarter Soldiers in any Houses hereby appointed for that Purpose, shall, at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, quarter any of the Wives, Children, Penalty.

LV. And for the better Preservation of the Game and Fish in or near such Place where any Officers shall at any Time be quartered, be it enacted, That if from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, any Officer shall, without Leave first had and obtained from the Person or Persons entitled to grant such Leave, take, kill, or destroy any Hare, Pheasant, Partridge, or any other Sort of Game, or any Fish within the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and upon Complaint thereof shall be, upon Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, convicted before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, who is and are hereby empowered and authorized to hear and determine the same; (that is to say,) every Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be distributed among the Poor of the Place where such Offence shall be committed. LVI. And Whereas several Marines, who being duly entered, 'may afterwards desert, and be found wandering, or otherwise absenting themselves illegally from His Majesty's Service;' It is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman of the Town or Place where any Person who may reasonably be suspected to be such a Deserter shall be found, or if no such Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman can be immediately met with, then for any Marine Officer or Marine to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace living in or near such Town or Place, who is hereby empowered and required to examine such suspected Person; and if, by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, or by Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is a Marine duly entered and ought to be with the Company to which he belongs, whether such Company shall be employed on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or quartered on Shore, or employed on board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty not being in Commission, or any Convict Hulk or Ship, such Justice of the Peace shall, without Fee or Reward to himself or Clerk, forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Gaol of the County or Place where he shall be found, or to the House of Correction or other public Prison in such Town or Place where such Deserter shall be apprehended, and transmit an Account thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being, Constables, &c. may apprehend Deserters, and carry them before a Justice, and transmit an Account to the Secretary of the Admiralty, &c.

LVII. And for the better Encouragement of any Person or Persons to secure or apprehend such Deserter, be it further enacted, That in the Case of every Deserter apprehended in Great Britain or Ireland, the Secretary of the Admiralty, upon receiving from the Justice of the Peace, or other Civil Magistrate by whom the Deserter shall have been committed, a Report stating the Name or Names of the Person or Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, which Report such Magistrate is hereby required to give, shall transmit to such Magistrate an Order upon the Paymaster of the Royal Marines for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings, to the Person or Persons so reported by the Magistrate, the Amount of which Reward shall be paid by the said Paymaster and charged against the Pay and Subsistence of every such Deserter, and shall be stopped and retained out of his Pay and Subsistence accordingly: Provided always, that this Reward shall only be given in Cases in which the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall be satisfied that such Person or Persons is or are justly entitled to the same according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily surrender or deliver himself up as a Deserter from His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or who, upon being apprehended for Desertion or any other Offence, shall, in the Presence of the Magistrate, confess himself to be a Deserter from such Forces, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, and to be a Marine, and shall be liable to serve, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Marine or not; and if the Person so confessing himself to be a Deserter shall be serving at the Time in the Royal Marine Forces, he shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with as a Deserter.

LIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall harbour, conceal, or assist any Deserter from His Majesty's Royal Marine Service in deserting or in concealing himself from such Service, knowing him to be such, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and upon Conviction by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty of Twenty Pounds shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; One Moiety of the said Penalty to be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces, and shall be credited by such Paymaster in his public Accounts, and a Report of the Penalty being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justices of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed; and in case any such Offender, who shall be convicted as aforesaid of harbouring, concealing, or assisting any such Deserter, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon Distress may be made, to the Value of the Penalty awarded against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such Case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Six Months.

‘ LX. And Whereas it has been judged expedient, for the Prevention of Desertion, to establish Outlying Parties in the Vicinity of the respective Divisions, for the Purpose of intercepting such Men as may straggle or attempt to desert from Head Quarters, and it is fit that Encouragement should be given to the Persons composing such Parties to be diligent and active in their Duty in this Behalf;’ Be it therefore enacted, That for and in respect of every Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine so straggling or attempting to desert, who may be apprehended at a greater Distance from Head Quarters than is allowed by the Articles of War, the Party or Parties by whom he shall be apprehended shall be entitled to a Reward of Ten Shillings, to be paid upon the Delivery up of such Marine; which Sum of Ten Shillings shall be charged against and stopped and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every such Noncommissioned Officer and Private Marine, in like Manner as the Reward or Sum of Twenty Shillings is hereinbefore directed to be charged against, stopped, and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every Deserter; any thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Reward for apprehending Marines attempting to desert.

‘ LXI. And Whereas many Justices and Chief Magistrates have erroneously discharged Recruits before the Expiration of Twenty four Hours after the Time of their Enlistment: And Whereas such Recruits are in consequence liable to be treated as Deserters through such Error of the Justice or Chief Magistrate, and without any evil Intention on their own Part;’ Be it therefore enacted, That no such Recruit who shall have been so erroneously discharged by a Justice or Chief Magistrate previous to the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, shall be liable on that Account to be proceeded against as having absconded or deserted from His Majesty’s Service.

Recruits discharged previous to March 25, 1827, before the Expiration of 24 Hours after Enlistment, not to be proceeded against as Deserters.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly detain, buy, or exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Ammunition, Clothes, Caps, or other Furniture belonging to the King, from any Marine, or Marine Deserter, or any other Person, Penalty on Persons receiving the Arms, Clothes, &c. of Deserters, &c.

Person, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, or any such Articles belonging to any Marine, or Marine Deserter, as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries according to the Custom of the Royal Marine Corps (being provided for the Marine, and paid for by the Deductions out of his Pay), or cause the Colour of such Clothes to be changed, every such Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds ; and upon Conviction by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hands of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender ; One Moiety thereof to be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces, who shall report the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and credit the same in his public Accounts, and a Report of such Penalty being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justices of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed ; and in case any such Offender, who shall be so convicted, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon Distress may be made to the Value of the Penalty recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such Case such Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, either commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

False Oaths
Perjury.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person taking a false Oath, in any Case wherein an Oath is required to be taken or authorized to be administered by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Laws now in force any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Furlough extended in case of Sickness, &c.

LXIV. And Whereas Marines absent on Furlough granted them by their Commanding Officers are sometimes prevented by Sickness or other unavoidable Casualty from returning to their Duty before the Expiration of the Time limited by such Furlough ; and Doubts have arisen whether in such Cases the Extension of a Marine's Furlough by a Justice of the Peace be sanctioned by legal Authority, and effectual for preventing such Marine from being apprehended upon Suspicion of his having deserted ; Be it further enacted, That any Inspecting Field Officer, stationed on the Recruiting Service, or any Officer of the Rank of Captain, or of superior Rank, or any Adjutant of Local Militia within the District ; or in case there be no such Officer as aforesaid within a convenient Distance, then any Justice of the Peace may and he is hereby authorized to grant in Writing under his Hand an Extension of Furlough to any Noncommissioned Officer or Marine applying for the same, on account of Sickness or other Casualty which shall on due Inquiry appear to render such Extension necessary ; and that every such Officer or Justice Justice of the Peace, who shall grant to any Noncommissioned Officer or Marine an Extension of Furlough as aforesaid, shall immediately certify the same, with the Cause of its being so granted, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and the Commandant of the Division to which the said Marine may belong; and that such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine, during the Period to which his Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be apprehended or otherwise molested on the Ground of his having deserted, or of criminally absenting himself from his Division: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Noncommissioned Officer or Marine, whose Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, from being proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of this Act, should it thereafter appear that such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine had obtained the Extension of his Furlough by false Representation made to such Officer or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, or in applying for and obtaining the same, had committed any Offence to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline: Provided also, that no such Furlough shall be extended by any such Officer or Justice of the Peace for any longer Period than One Month, unless with the Approbation of the General Officer commanding the District where such Marine shall be.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which any Extension of Furlough shall be granted as aforesaid in England, and upon the Request of any such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine to whom the same shall be granted, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace granting the same, or where the same shall be granted by any such Officer as aforesaid, for any Justice of the Peace, upon the Production of a Certificate in Writing from such Officer, which he is hereby required to give, to make an Order in Writing, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (D.), under his Hand, upon the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place wherein such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine shall reside, requiring them to pay to such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine any Sum of Money directed in such Order, not exceeding Two Thirds of his Daily Pay; such Justice of the Peace taking particular Care to state upon the Furlough in Words, to † the Amount so directed by him to be paid, and the Periods from and to which the same has been ordered to be issued, both inclusive, corroborating the Statement of † his Signature, and further specifying upon the Order to the Parish Officer of † the Date of the Furlough originally granted, and the Name of the Commanding Officer by whom signed; and the same so authorized shall be paid accordingly, upon Production and Delivery to him of such Order, by any such Parish Officer, out of any Money in his Hands applicable for the Relief of the Poor; and the same so advanced by such Parish Officer shall, upon the Production and Delivery of such Order to the Collector of Excise of the District within which such Parish, Township, or Place shall be situated, or any Person officiating for such Collector, be repaid to such Parish Officer, to be applied to the Relief of the Poor, by such Collector of Excise or other Person, out of any

Order to be made for Pay due for the Period of the extended Furlough.

† Sec.

Public Monies in his Hands, and the same shall be allowed in his Accounts; and such Orders of Justices shall be taken as Cash in the Payment of Duties of Excise received by him; and all Sums of Money so advanced out of any Duties of Excise shall be repaid to the Account of the said Duties by the Paymaster of the Royal Marines to any Person or Persons authorized by the Commissioners of Excise in England, or any Three or more of them, to draw for and receive the same: Provided always, that if any Justice of the Peace shall not think fit to make such Order for paying any such Money as aforesaid, he shall state his Reasons for such Refusal in Writing at the Back of the Furlough.

His Majesty may make further Orders respecting such Payments.

LXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to make any such further or other Regulations for the advancing of any such Sums of Money in all such Cases of Extension of Furlough, and for the Reimbursement thereof, as may be from time to time necessary for the carrying the same into Effect, and insuring the immediate Advance of such Money, where necessary, in Great Britain or Ireland, and the due and regular Reimbursements thereof.

Penalty for persuading Marines to desert.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions directly or indirectly persuade, aid, assist, or procure any Marine in the Service of His Majesty, His Heirs, or Successors, to desert or leave such Service, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer such Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, as the Court before which the Conviction may take place shall judge.

Offences against former Acts may be inquired of and punished as under this Act;

LXVIII. And, in order to prevent all Doubts which may arise in relation to punishing Offences committed against former Acts made for the Regulation of the Royal Marine Forces while on Shore, be it enacted, That all Crimes and Offences which have been committed against any of the former Acts in that Behalf, shall and may, during the Continuance of this present Act, be inquired of, heard, tried, and determined, adjudged, and punished, before and by the like Courts, Persons, Powers, Authorities, Ways, Means, and Methods, as the like Crimes and Offences committed against this present Act may be inquired of, heard, tried, determined, adjudged, and punished.

if committed within Three Years, except for Desertion.

LXIX. Provided always, That no Person shall be liable to be tried or punished for any Offence committed against any of the said former Acts, which shall appear to have been committed more than Three Years before the issuing of the Commission or Warrant for such Trial; only for the Offence of Desertion.

No Volunteer liable to Process, unless for some criminal Matter, or unless for a Debt of 20*l*.

LXX. And to prevent, as far as may be, any unjust or fraudulent Arrests that may be made upon Marines, whereby His Majesty and the Public may be deprived of their Service, it is hereby further enacted, That no Person whatsoever who is entered or shall enter himself as a Volunteer in His Majesty's Service as a Marine, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be liable to be taken out of His Majesty's Service by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some criminal Matter, unless for a real Debt, or other just Cause of Action, and unless before the taking out of such Process or Execution (not being for a criminal Matter), the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, or some other Person or Persons on his or their Behalf, shall make Affidavit before

fore One or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record or other Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, that to his or their Knowledge the original Sum justly due and owing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs from the Defendant or Defendants, in the Action or Cause of Action on which such Process shall issue, or the original Debt for which such Execution shall be issued out, amounts to the Value of Twenty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the same Action, or in any other Action on which the same shall be grounded; a Memorandum of which Oath shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken; and if any Person shall nevertheless be arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for One or more Judge or Judges of such Courts, upon Complaint thereof made by the Party himself, or by any his superior Officer, to examine into the same by the Oath of the Parties or otherwise, and by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals to discharge such Marine so arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Fees, upon due Proof made before him or them, that such Marine so arrested was legally listed as a Marine in His Majesty's Service, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act; and also to award to the Party so complaining such Costs as such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable; for the Recovery whereof he shall have the like Remedy that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the like Action might have had for the Recovery of his Costs, in case Judgment had been given for him with Costs against the Defendants in the said Action.

LXXI. And to the End that honest Creditors, who aim only at the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from Persons entered as Marines in His Majesty's Service, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but on the contrary may be assisted and forwarded in their Suits; and instead of an Arrest, which may at once hurt the Service, and occasion a great Expence and Delay to themselves, may be enabled to proceed in a more speedy and cheap Method, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Person or Persons so entered, or left at his or their Place of Residence before such Entry, to file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to entitle such Plaintiff to proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and to have an Execution thereupon, other than and against the Body or Bodies of him or them so entered as aforesaid; this Act, or any Thing herein, or any former Law or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That from the passing of this Act no Marine, being arrested or confined for Debt in any Prison, Gaol, or other Place, shall be entitled to any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Arrest or Confinement until the Day of his Return to the Regiment or Company to which he shall belong.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Gaoler to whom any Notice shall have been given that any Person in his Custody Plaintiff giving Notice may file a common Appearance and proceed to Judgment and Execution.

Marine while confined for Debt not to receive Pay.

Notice to be given to the Secretary of the Admiralty of the Expiration of the Imprisonment.

Clause for Relief of Persons hastily enlisting themselves.

Custody for any Offence is a Marine, and liable to serve His Majesty on the Expiration of his Imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice, or if there shall not be sufficient Time to give One Month's Notice, then a reasonable Notice, to the Secretary of the Admiralty before the Day on which the Imprisonment of such Person will expire, according to his Commitment or Sentence, of the Period of Expiration of such Imprisonment.

LXXIV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, when and as often as any Person or Persons shall be enlisted as a Marine or Marines in His Majesty's Service, he and they shall, within Four Days, but not sooner than Twenty four Hours, after such enlisting respectively, be carried or go with some Officer, Noncommissioned Officer, or Marine belonging to the Recruiting Party by which he shall be enlisted, or with the Person employed on the Recruiting Service with whom he shall have enlisted, before some Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, City, or Place, or Chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate, residing in or being next to or in the Vicinity of the Place where such Person or Persons shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer of Royal Marines, and before such Justice or Chief Magistrate he or they shall be at liberty to declare his or their Dissent to such Enlisting; and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also each Person so dissenting paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings for the Charges expended or laid out upon him, together with such full Rate allowed by Law for the Subsistence or Diet and Small Beer furnished to such Recruit subsequent to the Period of his having been enlisted, such Person or Persons so enlisted shall be forthwith discharged and set at liberty in the Presence of such Justice or Chief Magistrate; but if such Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty four Hours after so declaring his or their Dissent, to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he or they shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted, as if he or they had given his or their Assent thereto before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate; and if such Person or Persons shall declare his or their having voluntarily enlisted himself or themselves, then such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall, and he is hereby required forthwith to certify under his Hand that such Person or Persons is or are duly enlisted, setting forth the Place of the Birth, Age, and Calling of him or them respectively (if known), and that the Second and Third Sections of the Articles of War, for the better Government of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on Shore, were read to him or them, and that he or they had taken the Oath of Fidelity mentioned in the Twelfth Section of the said Articles of War, and also the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (A.), which Oaths respectively such Justice or Chief Magistrate is hereby authorized and required to administer; and if any such Person or Persons so to be certified as duly entered shall refuse to take the said Oath of Fidelity before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer from whom he has received such Money as aforesaid to detain detain or confine such Person or Persons until he or they shall take the Oath before required; and every Officer of Royal Marines that shall act contrary hereto, or offend herein, upon Proof upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a General Court-martial to be thereupon called, shall for such Offence be forthwith cashiered and displaced from such his Office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service: Provided always, that every Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine who shall enlist any Recruit shall, at the Time of such enlisting, inquire the Christian and Surname and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and either take the same down in Writing, or give the same to the Noncommissioned Officer commanding the Recruiting Party, to be so taken down: provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dissent within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dissent under this Act, notwithstanding no Officer, Noncommissioned Officer, or Private Marine belonging to the Recruiting Party, shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Magistrate, upon the Examination of such Recruit, or of any other Person, that the Recruiting Party have left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that such Recruit could not procure any Noncommissioned Officer belonging to such Party to go with such Recruit before the Justice of the Peace; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice of the Peace, and paid when demanded to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same; provided always, that in every Case wherein any Person shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded, or have absented himself from the Party aforesaid, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend him, and bring him before a Magistrate, the Officer or Noncommissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Magistrate before whom the Recruit would regularly have been brought for Attestation, a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Person, and the Magistrate to whom the Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Person who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to the Lords of the Admiralty or their Secretary, in order that in the Event of such Person being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Fact of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter as having duly enlisted.

‘ LXXV. And Whereas it is highly expedient that no Doubt should remain as to the Service of Royal Marines by reason of any Omission of His Majesty's Heirs and Successors in any Oath of Attestation; Be it therefore declared and enacted, That any Oath and Attestation of Service heretofore or hereafter taken and made to His Majesty is and shall be deemed and construed to be an Oath of Service to His Majesty's Heirs and Successors as the Sovereign of the Realm for the Time being, as fully and effectually, tually, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the Words Heirs and Successors had been inserted in any such Oath or Attestation.

Service to be to His Majesty's Heirs and Successors.

and his Deputy and Deputies, in His Majesty’s Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas, to receive any Votes, Proceedings, or other Public Papers, printed by Order or under the Authority of the Legislative Assemblies of any such Colonies or Possessions, for Conveyance by Packet Boats to Great Britain and Ireland ;

LII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, nor any Proceeding, Conviction, or Judgment to be had or taken thereupon, against any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent as aforesaid, shall prevent, lessen, or impeach any Remedy at Law or in Equity which any Party aggrieved by any such Offence might or would have had if this Act had not been passed ; but nevertheless the Conviction of any such Offender shall not be received in Evidence in any Action at Law or Suit in Equity against him ; and no Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent as aforesaid, shall be liable to be convicted by any Evidence whatever as an Offender against this

XII. And Whereas the Offences for which Compensation is granted by virtue of this Act may be committed in Counties of Cities and Towns, or in such Liberties, Franchises, Cities, Towns, and Places, as either do not contribute at all to the Payment of any County Rate, or contribute thereto, but not as being Part of any Hundred or other like District; and it is expedient to provide for all such Cases; Be it therefore enacted, That where any of the Offences in this Act mentioned shall be committed in a County of a City or Town, or in any such Liberty, Franchise, City, Town, or Place, the Inhabitants thereof shall be liable to yield Compensation in the same Manner, and under the same Conditions and Restrictions in all respects, as the Inhabitants of the Hundred; and every thing in this Act in anywise relating to a Hundred, or to the Inhabitants thereof, shall equally apply to every County of a City or Town, and to every such Liberty, Franchise,

An Act for the further Regulation of the General Penitentiary at Millbank. [21st June 1827.]

WHEREAS the Acts now in force for the Regulation of the General Penitentiary at Millbank have been found insufficient for the Repression of mutinous and disorderly Behaviour on the Part of the Convicts towards the Officers of the said Penitentiary, and it is expedient to make further Provisions for securing that Object, as well as certain other Objects conducive to the Well-being of the said Establishment ; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Convict in the General Penitentiary at Millbank shall assault the Governor thereof, or any Officer or Servant employed therein, the Committee appointed for the Management of the said Penitentiary under or by virtue of the said Acts may order him or her to be prosecuted for the said Offence, and upon Conviction thereof such Offender shall be liable to be confined in the said Penitentiary for any Term not exceeding Two Years, in addition to the Term for which at the Time of committing such Offence he or she was subject to be confined, and shall also be liable (if a Male) to be publicly or privately whipped, if the Court shall so think fit.

Punishment of Convicts assaulting the Governor or any other Officer.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Committee of the said Penitentiary from time to time to specify, by a Regulation or Regulations, such Offences as shall appear to them deserving of Corporal Punishment, such Regulations to be submitted to the Judges of the Court of King's Bench for their Sanction, in Manner directed by the Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate the General Penitentiary for Convicts at Millbank in the County of Middlesex ; and if any Male Convict in the said Penitentiary shall, after the Sanction of the said Judges shall be received, commit any Offence whereby he shall under such Regulations become liable to Corporal Punishment, the Governor of the said Penitentiary shall have Power to report such Offence to some One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, who shall as soon as convenient repair to the said Penitentiary, and shall enquire into the Offence so reported to him, and shall for that Purpose examine any Person upon Oath, if he shall so think fit, and if upon Proof of the Offence he shall be of Opinion that the same, under the Regulations above referred to, and under the Circumstances of the Case, is deserving of Corporal Punishment, such Magistrate is hereby authorized to order the Offender to be publicly or privately whipped : Provided always, that no Convict who shall have been so corporally punished shall for the same Offence be liable to be ordered by the Committee of the said Penitentiary to be punished by Confinement in a dark Cell upon Bread and Water ; but it shall nevertheless be competent to the said Committee to removed such Convict, if ranked in the Second Class, into the First Class ; and in case of Removal into the First Corporal Punishment may be inflicted in certain Cases and under certain Restrictions.

Class, such Convict shall from the Time of making the Order of Removal remain in such First Class until he shall be restored to the Second Class by Order of the Committee, or until the Term of his Confinement in the said Penitentiary shall be completed.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Convict who shall be under Confinement in the said Penitentiary shall at any Time during the Term of such Confinement break Prison, or escape, or be rescued from the said Penitentiary, or shall escape or be rescued in his or her Conveyance thereto, or from the Person or Persons having the lawful Custody of such Convict, or shall commit any other Offence mentioned in this Act or in any Act relating to the said Penitentiary, and cognizable by any Criminal Court, every such Offender may be tried either in the Jurisdiction where the Offence was committed or in that where he or she shall be apprehended and retaken; and in case of any Prosecution for any of the Offences aforesaid, against any such Convict, or against any other Person concerned therein, or aiding, abetting, or assisting the same, the Order of One of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State for the Confinement of such Convict in the said Penitentiary, together with due Proof of the Identity of the Person of such Convict, and Production of the Register of the said Penitentiary in which the Commitment of such Convict, and of his having been received into the said Prison under such Order, shall be entered, shall be sufficient Evidence of all the Facts inserted in such Registry as to such Convict, without the Production of any Record of such Conviction, or Proof that such Convict had been convicted of Felony, and legally ordered to be confined in the said Penitentiary.

Incorrigible
Convicts may of State, who may remit them

IV. And be it enacted, That if any Convict shall, within the first Half of the Period for which he or she shall be confined, appear to the said Committee to be incorrigible by the Discipline of the said Penitentiary, such Convict having been subjected to Confinement in a dark Cell for Offences committed within the said Penitentiary, in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Committee to represent the Conduct of such Convict to One of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, who may thereupon order such Convict to be removed to any Place appointed for the Reception of Convicts under Sentence of Transportation; and the Convict so removed shall be liable to be confined or transported under his or her original Sentence of Transportation, and to the full Extent of the Term specified in such Sentence, and shall be subject to all the Consequences of such Sentence, in the same Manner as if no Order for his or her being sent to the Penitentiary had ever been made.

Removal of diseased Pri-

V. And be it enacted, That if any Convict shall be reported by the Medical Officers of the said Penitentiary to the said Committee to be afflicted with any Disorder which would be likely to be materially benefited by the Removal of such Convict to any of the Vessels in which Convicts are confined under the Act passed in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Transportation of Offenders from Great Britain, it shall be lawful to the Committee to represent the State of Health of such Convict to One of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, who may thereupon order such Convict to be

be removed to any of such Vessels, there to remain for such Time as he would otherwise have been confined in the Penitentiary, or until he shall be removed back to the Penitentiary by a similar Order, to be therein confined under the original Order for his Confinement therein, or shall receive his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

‘ VI. And Whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted, that ‘ the Committee of the said Penitentiary shall at the Beginning

 ‘ their Earnings, and the Expences of such Penitentiary: And ‘ Whereas the said Provision, so far as regards the Period of ‘ making the said Report, requires Amendment, to enable the said ‘ Committee to lay such Accounts at all Times before Parliament ‘ up to the End of the preceding Year;’ Be it therefore enacted, That after the passing of this Act the said Committee shall make such Report as aforesaid on or before the Fifteenth Day of March in each Year, up to the End of the Year then last past, if Parliament shall be then sitting, and if not, then within Fifteen Days after the Meeting of Parliament at any subsequent Period of the Year.

‘ VII. And Whereas by the said recited Act it is provided, ‘ that the Governor of the said Penitentiary shall keep a regular

 ‘ Returns of the Particulars so mentioned are by the said Act ‘ ordered to be made on the First Day of every Term to His ‘ Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and to be verified on the ‘ Oath of the Person making the same: And Whereas it is ex‘ pedient to simplify the Form of such Returns;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Returns from the said Penitentiary to be made and verified to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench on the First Day of every Term, shall be deemed sufficient, provided they contain the following Particulars, (that is to say) the Number of Convicts who shall actually be in the said Penitentiary, the Number of those who shall have been received or discharged since the Return then last preceding, the Number of those who shall have died in such Cus-

‘ General Register House, which had been erected for the Pur‘ pose of being a Repository of the Public Muniments and Re-

‘ original Design and Plan thereof, and the Accommodation ‘ afforded by so much of the Building as had been erected had ‘ become insufficient for the Purposes of such Repository, and ‘ it being necessary that additional Accommodation should be ‘ afforded, it was reasonable that the Balance of Fees remaining,

‘ appertaining to the said Office of Lord Register, and also of ‘ the Office of the Keeper of the Signet, when the same should

‘ been finished, or according to such other Plan or Design as ‘ should appear to the aforesaid Persons above named, or any

‘ should make a Report to each House of Parliament, stating the ‘ Sums from time to time received by them pursuant to this Act,

‘ the Application thereof, the Progress made in completing the ‘ said Building, and any Matter arising out of the same which ‘ may appear proper to them to be reported to Parliament:
 ‘ And Whereas by the Reports made by the aforesaid Commis-

 ‘ aforesaid Act, it appears that in carrying into Execution the ‘ Purposes of the above recited Act, they had found it expedient ‘ to alter and in some respects to enlarge the original Plan or ‘ Design of the Buildings of His Majesty’s General Register ‘ House, and also to alter and improve certain Parts of the ‘ Buildings formerly erected, and the interior Arrangements of ‘ many of the Apartments therein contained, in consequence of ‘ which a larger Expence must unavoidably be incurred than ‘ had been provided for by the aforesaid Act; and that for defray-

 ‘ His late Majesty;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Balance of all such Fees as have already arisen or shall hereafter arise, which are directed by the said first recited Act to be paid to the Receiver General of Scotland, shall be paid to the Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland, the Keeper of the Privy Seal of Scotland, the Lord Justice General of Scotland, the Lord
 President of the Court of Session in Scotland, the Lord Register of Scotland, the Lord Advocate of Scotland, the Lord Justice Clerk, the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and the Lord Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court, all for the Time being, until Sums shall have been received by them, adapted, in the present State of the Public Records of Scotland, for the Purposes of such Repository.

C A P. LIV.

An Act to carry into Effect the Treaty with Sweden relative to the Slave Trade. [2d July 1827.]

Treaty, dated 6th Nov. 1824.

‘ WHEREAS a Treaty was made between His Majesty and the King of Sweden and Norway, for preventing their Subjects from engaging in any Traffic in Slaves, and signed at Stockholm on the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty four: And Whereas by the First Article of the said Treaty, wherein it is recited that the Laws of Sweden and Norway, from the remotest Time, never have recognized the Existence of Slavery under any Form whatever; and that the Laws of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland prohibit to the Subjects of His Britannic Majesty, under the severest Penalties, any Participation whatever in a Commerce degrading to Humanity and unworthy of a civilized Age; His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway engages himself, in consequence, to reiterate within the Space of Six Months after the Ratification of the said Treaty, or sooner if possible, to all His Subjects, in the most explicit Manner, the Prohibition then already existing, that they should take any Part in the Traffic of Slaves; and by the said First Article, in order to render more effective the Measures to which His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway pledges himself by the said Treaty for the Suppression of the said Traffic, and with a View of assimilating them more nearly to those already adopted by Great Britain, His said Majesty engages to add to them as soon as possible, with the Concurrence of the States General of the Kingdom of Sweden, and of the Storting of the Kingdom of Norway, penal Laws according to the Spirit of the Legislation of each of the said Countries, which Laws shall visit with a Punishment proportionate to the Magnitude of the Crime, any Participation whatever by Swedish or Norwegian Subjects in the Slave Trade; and in the meantime and until these subsequent Arrangements could be put in force, the Tenor of the Royal Ordinance of the Seventh Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, of which a Copy is annexed to the said Treaty, marked with the Letter A., is formally maintained and confirmed by the said First Article: And Whereas by the Second Article of the said Treaty, in order more completely to prevent all Infringement of the Spirit of the said First Article, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway do declare, that the Vessels belonging to their respective Subjects, which contrary to all Expectation may be found employed in the said forbidden Traffic, shall by that Act lose all Right to claim the Protection of their Flag; and His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway mutually consent, that the Ships of their royal Navies, which shall be provided with special Instructions for this Purpose as thereafter mentioned, shall visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may be suspected on reasonable Grounds of being concerned in the Traffic of Slaves contrary to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and in case thereof, may detain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial in the Manner stipulated in the Fourth Article of the said Treaty: And Whereas by the Third Article of the said Treaty, in order to explain the Mode of Execution of the preceding Article, it is agreed, First, that such reciprocal Right of Visit and Detention shall not be exercised within the Mediterranean Sea, nor within the European Seas lying without the Straits of Gibraltar, to the Northward of the Thirty seventh Degree of North Latitude, and within and to the Eastward of the Meridian of Ferro; Secondly, that all Ships of the Royal Navies of the Two Nations, which shall be thereafter employed to prevent the Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished by their respective Governments with a Copy in the English, Swedish, and Norwegian Languages of the Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, and which Instructions shall be considered as an integral Part thereof, provided that they shall not be altered or modified but with the common Consent of His Majesty and of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway; Thirdly, that the Names of the several Vessels furnished with such Instructions, the Force of each, and the Names of their several Commanders, shall be from time to time communicated forthwith by the Power issuing the same to the other High Contracting Party; Fourthly, that the Ships of each of the Royal Navies authorized to make such Visit as aforesaid shall not exceed the Number of Twelve belonging to either of the High Contracting Parties, without the previous Consent of the other High Contracting Party; Fifthly, that the Right of Visit, such as thus reciprocally agreed on by His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, shall not be directly exercised upon Mer-

' chant Vessels sailing under the Convoy of one or more Ships
 ' of War of either His Majesty or His Majesty the King of Sweden
 ' and Norway; but that if, contrary to all Expectation, the Com' mander of a Ship of War of either of the Two Governments
 ' employed in the Suppression of the Slave Trade, should have ' reasonable Grounds for suspecting that a Ship under Convoy of ' the other Government should in fact have on board Slaves de' stined for Sale, or be otherwise engaged in the Traffic of Slaves
 ' contrary to the Provisions of the said Treaty, the Commander
 ' of such Ship of War as aforesaid shall address himself to the ' Commander of the Convoy, in order to communicate his Suspi' cions, and the latter shall then proceed to visit the suspected ' Ship, accompanied by either the Commander of the Cruiser him' self, or any Officer whom the latter may delegate as his Repre' sentative; and it is agreed that the Commander of the Convoy
 ' shall afford all the Aid and Assistance possible to the Visit of ' the suspected Ships, and to their eventual Detention, according ' to the Spirit and true Sense of the said Treaty: And Whereas
 ' it is by the Fourth Article of the said Treaty agreed, in order to ' bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience,
 ' the Ships of the Two Nations which may be detained for being ' engaged in a Traffic of Slaves, contrary to the Provisions of the ' said Treaty, that mixed Courts of Justice shall be formed, of an ' equal Number of Individuals to be named for this Purpose by ' their respective Sovereigns, and that One of the said Courts
 ' shall be established in One of the Possessions of His Britannic
 ' Majesty on the Coast of Africa, which shall be named at the ' Exchange of the Ratification of the said Treaty, and the other ' in the Island of Saint Bartholemew in the West Indies, belonging
 ' to His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, each of their ' said Majesties reserving to himself the Right of changing at ' his Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Court within his
 ' Dominions; and it is also thereby provided, that in the Event
 ' of the Absence, on account of Illness or any other unavoid' able Cause, of One or more of the Commissioners, Judges, or ' Arbiters under the said Treaty, or in case of their Absence on ' Leave from their Government, duly notified to the Board of ' Commissioners sitting under the said Treaty, their Posts shall ' be supplied in the same Manner in which, by the Ninth Article
 ' of the Regulations for the Mixed Commissioners, those Va' cancies are to be supplied which may occur by the Death of ' One or more of the Commissioners aforesaid; and it is thereby
 ' also agreed, that each Government shall name, to sit in each of ' these Courts, a Judge and an Arbiter, reserving, however, to ' itself, according to Circumstances and as it shall think proper,
 ' the Power either of naming for that Purpose permanent salaried
 ' Officers, or of eventually appointing duly qualified Individuals
 ' on the Spot, who shall, when the Case occurs, assemble in the ' Quality of Judges and Arbiters; and it is provided, never' theless, that after the Term fixed for the Meeting of the said
 ' Commissioners, their Proceedings in Examination and Adju' dication shall not be delayed by reason of the Absence of any ' Judge or Arbiter to be appointed under the Provisions of ' the said Treaty, but that the same shall be had and deter' mined

mined by such Commissioners as shall or may be assembled, observing in all Things, as nearly as may be, the several Provisions of the said Treaty: And Whereas, by the Fifth Article of the said Treaty, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway each engage to make good to the Subjects of the other any Losses which their respective Cruisers may cause them to experience by the illegal or arbitrary Detention of their Vessels; and it is thereby declared to be understood, that the Visit and Detention shall not under any Pretext whatever be effected but by Ships which form a Part of the Two Royal Navies of their said Majesties, and which shall be provided with the special Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, and in pursuance to the Provisions thereof: And Whereas by the Sixth Article of the said Treaty it is agreed, that in case the Officers commanding Vessels employed for the Suppression of the Slave Trade shall deviate in any respect whatever from the Stipulations of the said Treaty, the Government which shall conceive itself to be wronged by such Conduct shall have the Right to demand Reparation, and in such Case the Government to which the said Commanding Officers shall belong binds itself to cause Enquiry to be made into the Subject of the Complaint, and to inflict, should such Complaint be grounded, Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed: And Whereas by the Seventh Article of the said Treaty it is agreed, that in case of clear and undeniable Proof that during the immediate Voyage of a Vessel so visited as aforesaid, one or more Slaves shall, for the Purpose of Traffic, have been embarked on board of such Vessel, then and in such Case the Vessel in question shall be detained and brought to Trial in the Manner therein above mentioned in the Second Article of the said Treaty; and it is thereby further mutually agreed, that all Merchant Vessels which shall be found hovering or sailing near the Coasts of Africa, within One Degree to the Westward of the said Coasts, between the Twentieth Degree of North Latitude and the same Degree of South Latitude, or at anchor within any of the Rivers, Gulfs, or Creeks of these Coasts within the Limits herein above established, or at anchor in any Part within the said Limits, may be lawfully detained and brought before the established Tribunals, provided that in her Equipment there shall be found any of the Particulars thereafter mentioned; namely, First, that her Hatches are fitted with open Gratings instead of close Hatches, as usual in Merchants' Vessels; Secondly, that there are more Divisions or Bulk Heads in her Hold, or on her Deck, than are necessary for Trading Vessels; Thirdly, that on board of her there is spare Plank either actually fitted in that Shape, or fit for readily laying a Second or moveable Deck, or Slave Deck; Fourthly, that on board of her there are Shackles, Bolts, and Handcuffs; Fifthly, that on board of her there is an unreasonable Quantity of Water in Casks or in Tanks, more than sufficient for the Consumption of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel; Sixthly, that on board of her there is an unreasonable Number of Water Casks or other Vessels for holding Water, unless the Master shall produce a Certificate from the Custom House from the Place from which he cleared.

' Outwards, stating that a sufficient Security had been given by ' the Owners of such Vessel that such extra Quantity of Casks or ' other Vessels should only be used for the Reception of Palm
 ' Oil or other lawful Commerce; Seventhly, that on board of her
 ' there is a greater Quantity of Mess Tubs or Kids than is re' quisite for the Use of the Crew as a Merchant Vessel; Eighthly,
 ' that on board of her there are Two or more Copper Boilers, or ' even that there is One of an unreasonable Size, larger than is ' requisite for the Use of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel; Ninthly,
 ' that on board of her there is an unreasonable Quantity of Rice
 ' or Farinha, Flour of the Mancoe of Brazil or Cassada, or Maize,
 ' or Indian Corn, beyond any probable requisite Provision for the ' Use of the Crew, and such Rice, Flour, Maize, or Indian Corn
 ' not being entered on the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for ' Trade; and it is further mutually agreed, that the Proof of these
 ' or of any one or more of these several Indications shall be ' considered as prima facie Evidence of her actual Employment
 ' in the Slave Trade, and unless rebutted by satisfactory Evidence ' upon the Part of the Master or Owners, that such Ship or Ves' sel was otherwise legally employed at the Time of her Deten' tion and Capture, the Ship or Vessel shall thereupon be con' demned and declared lawful Prize: And Whereas it is also in ' the Eighth Article of the said Treaty agreed, that the Acts or ' Instruments of which Mention is made in the said Treaty, and ' which being annexed thereto form an integral Part of it, are the
 ' following; the Proclamation of His Majesty the King of Sweden
 ' and Norway, which forbids anew to his Subjects the Slave ' Trade; an Extract of a Royal Norwegian Proclamation, dated
 ' the Sixteenth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ' ninety two, Paragraphs the First and Sixth; Instructions for the ' Vessels of the Royal Navies of Great Britain, and of Sweden
 ' and Norway, employed in preventing the Slave Trade; and ' Regulation for the Mixed Courts of Justice: And Whereas the ' said Proclamation, to which the Words "Annex A." are pre-
 ' fixed, is as follows:

' Proclamation.

' WE, Charles John, by the Grace of God King of Sweden and
 ' Norway, and of the Goths and Vandals, do hereby make known,
 ' That desiring sincerely to maintain the Principles manifested
 ' by Our well-beloved Father His Majesty the King Charles
 ' the XIII., of glorious Memory, concerning the Slave Trade,
 ' which Principles perfectly coincide with Our own Sentiments,
 ' We have declared and do hereby declare —

' That any Swedish and Norwegian Ship, which against all Ex' pectation shall be found employed in the Slave Trade, shall be ' deemed in consequence of that Transgression to have lost all
 ' Right to our Protection, or to that of Our Functionaries

' That We shall learn with Satisfaction the Discovery and the ' Punishment of all Abuse of the Swedish and Norwegian Flag in ' a Traffic so odious; and that accordingly We have admitted,
 ' that every Ship bearing the Swedish or Norwegian Flag, which ' shall be found employed in the Slave Trade, shall be considered
 ' as if it did not bear the above-mentioned Flag.

• Done at the Castle of Stockholm, the Seventh Day of February 1823.

And Whereas the said Extract of a Royal Norwegian Proclamation, to which the Words "Annex B." are prefixed, is as follows:

 Extract of a Royal Proclamation, dated the 16th of March 1792,
' Paragraphs 1st and 6th.*

‘ 1^o.—From the beginning of the Year 1803, all Traffic in ‘ Negroes, for the Subjects of the King, is to be abolished on the ‘ Coasts of Africa, and wherever it may be practised out of the ‘ Royal Possessions in the West Indies, so that after that Period ‘ no Negro nor Negress shall be bought, either on the Coast or ‘ elsewhere, on account of or by any of the Subjects of the King, ‘ nor be transported in Vessels belonging to Subjects of the ‘ King, nor be imported into the Possessions of the West Indies
‘ for Sale there; and that all Sale in Contravention of this Pro‘ clamation shall be regarded as illegal. * * *

* * * * *

‘ 6°.—The Exportation of Negroes and Negresses from the ‘ Islands of the West Indies is forbidden from this Day, very ‘ severely, and those are only excepted from the Effect of this ‘ Prohibition whom the Laws permit to go out of the Country, ‘ and those to whom the Governor General and the Regency in ‘ the West India Islands, may grant a similar Permission, according ‘ to Circumstances, and in particular Cases :

‘ And Whereas by the First Article of the said Instructions ‘ before referred to, and made an integral Part of the said Treaty, ‘ it is provided, First, that every Ship of the Royal Navies of the ‘ United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or of Sweden ‘ and Norway, which, furnished with the said Instructions, shall,
‘ in conformity with the Second and Seventh Articles of the said ‘ Treaty, have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of either of ‘ the Two Powers actually engaged or suspected to be engaged ‘ in the Slave Trade, may, except in the Seas exempted by the ‘ Third Article of the said Treaty, proceed to such Visit, and ‘ should any Slaves be found on board, brought there for the ex‘ press Purpose of the Traffic, or that the Ship can in general be ‘ included in the Cases provided against in the said Second and ‘ Seventh Articles, the Commander of the said Ship of the Royal ‘ Navy may detain it, and having detained it, he is to bring it as ‘ soon as possible for Judgment to the Places stipulated by the ‘ Fourth Article of the said Treaty; and that Ships on board of ‘ which no Slaves shall be found intended for Purpose of Traffic, ‘ shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatever;
‘ and that Negro Servants or Sailors that may be found on board
‘ the

' the said Vessels cannot in any Case be deemed a sufficient
 ' Cause for Detention: And Whereas by the Second Article of ' the said Instructions it is provided, that whenever a Ship of ' either of the Royal Navies, so commissioned, shall meet a Mer-
 ' chantman liable to be searched, it shall be done in the mildest
 ' Manner, and with every Attention which is due between allied
 ' and friendly Nations; and in no Case shall the Search be made
 ' by an Officer holding a Rank inferior to that of Lieutenant of ' the Navy: And Whereas by the Third Article of the said In' structions it is provided, that the Ships of either of the Royal
 ' Navies, so commissioned, which may detain any Merchant Ship
 ' in pursuance of the Tenor of the present Instructions, shall leave
 ' on board all the Cargo as well as the Master and a Part at least ' of the Crew of the above-mentioned Ship; and that the Captor
 ' shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall ' exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the ' Changes which may have taken place in it, and that he shall ' deliver to the Master of the detained Ship a signed Certificate
 ' of the Papers seized on board the said Vessel, as well as of the ' Number of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention,
 ' and that the Negroes shall not be disembarked till after the ' Vessels which contain them shall be arrived at the Place where
 ' the Legality of the Capture is to be tried; but that, however,
 ' if urgent Motives, deduced from the Length of the Voyage,
 ' the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, require that ' they should be disembarked entirely, or in part, the Commander ' of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of ' such Disembarkation, provided that the Necessity be stated in
 ' a Certificate in proper Form: And Whereas, by the First Article
 ' of the Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice, and which ' Regulations are annexed to the said Treaty, and form an integral ' Part thereof, it is provided, that the said Mixed Courts of ' Justice to be established by the said Treaty are appointed to ' decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Vessels as
 ' the Cruizers of both Nations shall detain in pursuance of the ' said Treaty; and that the above-mentioned Courts shall judge
 ' definitively and without Appeal, according to the said Treaty;
 ' and that the Proceeding shall take place as summarily as possible;
 ' and the said Courts are required to decide (as far as they shall ' find it practicable) within the Space of Twenty Days, to be ' dated from that in which every detained Vessel shall have been ' brought into the Port where they shall reside, First, upon the ' Legality of the Capture; Secondly, in the Cases in which the ' captured Vessel shall have been liberated, as to the Indemnifi-
 ' cation which the said Vessel is to receive; and that in no Case
 ' shall the final Sentence be delayed on account of the Absence
 ' of Witnesses, or for Want of other Proofs, beyond the Period of ' Two Months, except upon the Application of any of the Parties
 ' interested, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to ' charge themselves with the Expence and Risks of the Delay;
 ' the Courts may at their Discretion grant an additional Delay;
 ' not exceeding Four Months: And Whereas by the Second
 ' Article of the said Regulations it is provided, that each of the ' said Mixed Courts shall be composed in the following Manner;

' that

that is to say, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway shall each of them name a Judge and an Arbiter, who shall be authorized to hear and decide without Appeal all Cases of Capture of Vessels, which in pursuance of the Stipulations of the said Treaty shall be brought before them; and that all the essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before the said Mixed Courts shall be written down either in English or in Swedish or Norwegian; and that the Judges and the Arbiters shall make Oath to judge fairly and faithfully, to have no Preference either for the Claimants or the Captors, and to act in all their Decisions in pursuance of the Stipulations of the said Treaty; and that there shall be attached to each Court when assembled a Secretary or Registrar, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to his taking Charge of his Post, shall make Oath before the Court to conduct himself with Respect for their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge; and that in the Case contemplated by the Fourth Article of the said Treaty the permanent or temporary Salaries of the Members of the Mixed Courts shall be paid by their respective Sovereigns, those of the Secretary or Registrar of the Court to be established on the Coast of Africa shall be paid by His Britannic Majesty, and those of the Secretary of the Court to be established in the West Indies by His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway: And Whereas, in regard to the incidental Expences of the said Courts, it is by the said Second Article of the said Regulation provided, that each Government shall defray the Half, and that the Expences carried to Account by the Officer charged with the Reception and Care of the detained Ships, as well as with the Execution of the Sentence (Marshal of the Court), and any other Disbursement occasioned by the bringing a Vessel to Judgment, shall be defrayed from the Funds arising from the Sale of the Vessel, in case of Condemnation, and by the Captor if the detained Vessel should be released: And Whereas by the Third Article of the said Regulations it is provided, that the Form of the Process shall be as follows; that is to say, the Judges of the Two Nations shall in the first Place proceed to the Examination of the Papers of the Vessel, and to receive the Depositions of the Captain, who, if he should so wish, shall be allowed to employ Counsel to conduct his Defence, and of Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should it appear necessary in order to be enabled to judge and to pronounce whether the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the said Treaty, and in order that according to the said Judgment it may be condemned or liberated; and in the Event of the Two Judges not agreeing in the Sentence they ought to pronounce, whether as to the Legality of the Detention or the Indemnification to be allowed, or any other Question which might result from the Stipulations of the said Treaty, they shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Arbiters, who, after having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the above-mentioned Judges on the Case in Question, and the final Sentence

' tence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion of the ' Majority of the above-mentioned Judges and of the above-men' tioned Arbiter: And Whereas by the Fourth Article of the said
 ' Regulations it is provided, that in the authenticated Declaration
 ' which the Captor shall make before the Court, as well as in the ' Certificate of the Papers seized, which shall be delivered to
 ' the Captain of the captured Vessel at the Time of Detention,
 ' the above-mentioned Captor shall be bound to declare his Name
 ' and the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longi' tude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place,
 ' and the Number of Slaves found on board of the Ship at the ' Time of the Detention: And Whereas by a Fifth Article of the ' said Regulations it is provided, that as soon as Sentence shall ' have been pronounced which shall be duly founded, the detained
 ' Vessel, if liberated, and the Cargo in the State in which it shall
 ' then be found, shall be restored to the Master or the Person
 ' who represents him, who may before the same Court claim a ' Valuation of the Damages which they may have a Right to de' mand, and that the Captor himself, and in his Default his ' Government, shall remain responsible for the above-mentioned
 ' Damages: And whereas by the said Fifth Article of the said
 ' Regulations, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden
 ' and Norway bind themselves to pay within the Term of a Year
 ' from the Date of the Sentence the Costs and Damages which ' may be granted by the above-named Court, it being understood
 ' that such Costs and Damages shall be at the Expence of the ' Power of which the Captor shall be a Subject: And Whereas by
 ' the Sixth Article of the said Regulations it is provided, that in ' case of the Condemnation of a Vessel, she shall be declared
 ' lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it ' may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board
 ' as Objects of Commerce; and that the said Vessel, as well as ' her Cargo, shall be sold by public Sale for the Profit of the Two ' Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the ' Mixed Courts a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be de' livered over to the Government to which the Captor belongs,
 ' to be employed as Servants or free Labourers; and each of the ' Two Governments binds itself to guarantee the Liberty of such
 ' Portion of these Individuals as shall be respectively consigned
 ' to it: And Whereas it is thereby also provided, that the Ex-
 ' pences for supporting the Slaves between the Time of their ' Capture and the Condemnation shall be levied on the Fund
 ' arising from the Sale of the condemned Vessel, but afterwards
 ' those Expences shall be charged to the Government of the ' Country which is to enjoy the Advantage of their Labour; and ' that the Charges incurred for the Support and the Return of ' the Crew of the condemned Vessels shall be defrayed by the ' Government of which they are the Subjects: And Whereas by
 ' the Seventh Article of the said Regulations it is provided, that
 ' the Mixed Courts shall also take Cognizance and decide ac' cording to the Third Article of this Regulation, on all Claims for ' Compensation on account of Losses occasioned to Vessels de' tained under Suspicion of having been engaged in the Slave
 ' Trade, but which shall not have been condemned as legal Prize
 ' by

by the said Courts; and in all Cases wherein Restitution shall have been decreed, the Court shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, his or their lawful Attorney or Attornies, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say,

‘ Firstly,—In case of Total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified—

‘ (a.) For the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel, and Stores.

‘ (b.) For all Freight due and payable.

‘ (c.) For the Value of the Cargo of Merchandize, if any, ‘ deducting for all Charges and Expences payable ‘ upon the Sale of such Cargoes, including Com‘ mission of Sale.

‘ (d.) For all other Regular Charges, in such Cases of Total ‘ Loss. And,

‘ Secondly—In all other Cases, not of Total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified—

‘ (a.) For all Special Damages and Expences occasioned to ‘ the Ship by the Detention, and for Loss of Freight, ‘ when due or payable.

‘ (b.) A Demurrage when due, according to the Schedule ‘ annexed to the present Article.

‘ (c.) For any Deterioration of Cargo.

‘ (d.) An Allowance of Five per Cent. on the Amount of the ‘ Capital employed for the Purchase of Cargo, for ‘ the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention;
‘ and,

‘ (e.) For all Premium of Insurance on additional Risks.

‘ And Whereas it is also thereby agreed, that the Claimant or Claimants shall in all Cases be entitled to Interest at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum on the Sum awarded, until paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs, the whole Amount of such Indemnification being calculated in the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at the Exchange current at the Time of the Award: And Whereas, in order to avoid as much as possible every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the said Treaty, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway have, by the said Seventh Article of the said Regulations, also agreed, that if it should be proved in a Manner evident to the Conviction of the Judges of the Two Nations, and without having Recourse to the Decision of an Arbiter, that the Captor had been led into Error by a voluntary and reprehensible Fault on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship, in that Case only the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving during the Days of her Detention the Demurrage stipulated by the said Article: And Whereas to the said Seventh Article of the said Regulation is affixed the following, being

‘ Laws of the Customs, and it has been found necessary to make ‘ certain Alterations and Amendments therein;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, the several Enactments hereinafter contained shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation for all the Purposes mentioned therein.

‘ II. And Whereas by One of the said Acts, intituled An Act for ‘ the General Regulation of the Customs, it is enacted, that no ‘ Entry nor any Warrant for the taking of any Goods out of any ‘ Warehouse, shall be valid, unless made in Manner therein di‘ rected; and that any Goods taken or delivered out of any ‘ Warehouse by virtue of any Entry not so made shall be deemed ‘ to be Goods taken without due Entry thereof; and Doubts have ‘ arisen whether such Goods can be deemed to be taken or deli‘ vered until they be actually removed away from the Ware‘ house, and out of the Custody of the Officers of the Customs;’
be it therefore enacted, That when Demand shall have been made for the Delivery or for any Order for the Delivery of any Goods in virtue of any such Entry, such Goods shall be deemed to have been taken and delivered within the Meaning of the said Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned Act as prohibits the Importation of Beef or Pork salted, not being Beef or Pork commonly called Corned Beef or Pork, and also so much of the said Act as prohibits the Importation of Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Lamb, Mutton, or Pork, from the Isle of Man, being the Produce of that Island, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

‘ IV. And Whereas another Act was passed in the Sixth Year ‘ of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the ‘ Prevention of Smuggling; and it is expedient to alter and amend ‘ the same in Manner hereinafter provided;’ Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person shall be proceeded against under the said last in part recited Act, or this or any other Act now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, and the Information exhibited against such Person shall charge him as being a Seaman, and fit and able to serve His Majesty in His Naval Service, and it shall appear to the Justices before whom such Person is brought, that he is guilty of the Offence with which he is charged, but that he is not fit for His Majesty’s Naval Service, that then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Justices, and they are hereby required to amend such Information accordingly, and to convict such Person in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, as if proceeded against as not being a Seaman or fit for His Majesty’s Naval Service.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Spirits or Tobacco which shall be found being removed or carried without a legal Permit for the same, shall be deemed to be Spirits or Tobacco respectively unshipped without Payment of Duty, unless the Party in whose Possession the same shall be found or seized shall prove to the contrary.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared, That in all Cases where any Penalty, the Amount of which is at any Time to be determined by the Value of any Goods, is directed to be sued for under any Law now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, such Value shall be deemed and taken to be according to the Rate and Price which Goods of the like Sort or Denomination, and of the best Quality, bear at such Time in London, and upon which the Duties due upon Importation have been paid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Information is exhibited for any Offence against the said last-mentioned Act, or this or any other Act now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, such Information may be received by One Justice of the Peace, and such Justice may issue a Summons for the Appearance of the Party against whom such Information is exhibited before any Two Justices of the Peace; and after the Hearing and Conviction before any Two Justices of the Peace, any One of the said Justices, or any other Justice of the Peace, may issue his Warrant to enforce the Conviction, and such Warrant shall and may be executed in any County in England; and where, in default of Payment of the Penalty sought for, the Imprisonment of the Party takes place for the Space of Six Months, such Time of Imprisonment shall be reckoned from the Time of the Commencement of such Imprisonment.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Information shall be exhibited before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, for any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture under any Act now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, and it is necessary to summon the Party against whom such Information is exhibited, it shall be deemed a good and sufficient Service of such Summons if the same be left at the House or usual Place of Residence of the said Party, and directed to such Party.

IX. And Whereas, by the said Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, Foreign Vessels laden with Spirits in Casks of less Content than Forty Gallons, or with certain other Goods, in which there shall be a certain Proportion of British Subjects, are liable to Seizure if found within certain Distances of the Coast: And Whereas it frequently happens, that during Chase, and previously to such Vessels being taken Possession of, certain Persons, who are believed to be British Subjects, but of which there is no legal Proof, quit such Vessels, leaving only Foreigners on board, by which the Law is evaded, and the Vessels and Cargoes escape Confiscation, although the Cargoes may be evidently intended to be smuggled into the United Kingdom; be it therefore enacted, That in all such Cases where any Person shall escape from any such Vessel or Boat before Possession is taken of it, every such Person so escaping shall be deemed to be a Subject of His Majesty, within the Meaning of the Magistrate in adjoining County to have Jurisdiction.

‘ X. And Whereas in Proceedings under the said last-mentioned Act Difficulties frequently arise in procuring the Attendance of Two Magistrates who have Jurisdiction in the County where the Offence has been committed, and Delay is thereby occasioned ;’ Be it enacted, That where the Attendance of Two Magistrates having Jurisdiction in the County where the Offence is committed cannot be conveniently obtained, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate of any adjoining County, with One Magistrate of the County in which the Offence was committed, to hear and determine any Information exhibited before them, and to have the same Powers and Authorities in all respects as to any Proceeding had under the said last-mentioned or any other Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, as if they were both Magistrates for the County in which the Offence was committed.

Penalties recovered before Justices to be paid to Commissioners of the Customs or Excise.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures which may be recovered before any Justices of the Peace under the said last-mentioned Act, or this or any other Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, on any Prosecution by Order of the Commissioners of Customs, shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs, and on any Prosecution by Order of the Commissioners of Excise shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Excise, or to the Person appointed by them respectively to receive the same ; and such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be applied by the said Commissioners respectively in such Manner as the Law directs.

And be it further enacted, That if any Goods which are subject to any Duty or Restriction in respect of Importation shall be found on Examination of any Package to be concealed in double Sides or false Bottoms, or in any other secret or disguised Place in such Package, or among any other Things in such Package, that then and in such Case not only all such Goods, but also all other Goods found in the said Package, shall be forfeited.

And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be arrested by virtue of a Warrant issued under the said Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, and shall enter into a Recognizance, and appear in the said Court at the Return of the said Recognizance, but shall not afterwards plead to the Information

or Indictment, it shall and may be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment to cause a Copy thereof to be delivered to such Person, or to his or her Attorney or Agent, or to be left at his or her last Place of Abode, with a Notice thereon indorsed, that unless such Person shall, within Eight Days from the Time of such Delivery of a Copy of the Information or Indictment as aforesaid, cause a Plea to be entered in the said Court to such Information or Indictment, that the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment will enter into a Plea of Not Guilty on his or her Behalf: and that upon Affidavit being made and filed in the Court, of the Delivery of a Copy of such Information or Indictment, with such Notice indorsed thereon as aforesaid, to such Person, or to his or her Attorney or Agent, or at his or her last Place of Abode, as the Case may be, it shall be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment to cause the Plea of Not Guilty to be entered in the said Court to such Information or Indictment for such Person, and such Proceedings shall be had thereupon as if the Defendant in such Information or Indictment had pleaded according to the usual Course of the said Court.

Appeals against Assessments or Applotments shall be made to the next Quarter Sessions after the Applotment, if

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the ‘ Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to provide ‘ for the establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland for a ‘ limited Time, and which was amended by an Act passed in the ‘ Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and the said ‘ Acts required † to be further amended in certain Particulars:
‘ And Whereas by the said first-recited Act it is among other ‘ things enacted, that it shall be lawful for any Person aggrieved ‘ by or dissatisfied with the Rate or Sum at which any Land shall ‘ be assessed in any Assessment or Applotment in any Parish ‘ under the said Act, as compared with the Rate or Amount pay‘ able in respect of any other Land in the same Parish under such ‘ Assessment or Applotment, to appeal to the Justices of the ‘ Peace at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Manner ‘ in the said Act mentioned;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every such Appeal shall be made to the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County or Place in which such Parish shall be situate, or any Adjourn-plotment, if there be sufficient Time to give such Notice as is required by the said Act in Cases of such Appeal; and for want of sufficient Time for giving such Notice previous to the Quarter Sessions

Sessions next after the Completion of such Applotment, then such Appeal (after such Notice and under such Recognizance as in and by the said Act are required) may be made at the Second General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County or Place next after the Completion of such Applotment; and such Appeal against such Assessment or Applotment shall not be made at any other subsequent Sessions; any thing in the said recited Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ II. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign it is among other Things provided and enacted, that an Appeal may be made to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland in Council, against the Certificate of any Commissioners or Umpire under the said recited Act; and that it shall be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice and Consent of His Majesty’s Privy Council in Ireland, to hear and determine such Appeal in the Cases and in Manner in the said Act mentioned: And Whereas such Appeals do often involve the Rights or Title of Parties to the Possession or Occupation of Lands and Tenements, and Doubts have arisen whether the Decision of the Lord Lieutenant in Council on such Appeal is not to all Intents and Purposes conclusive as to such Rights or Title;’ Be it therefore enacted, That in every Case of Appeal in which the Rights or Title of any Party to the Possession or Occupation of any Lands or Tenements shall be involved, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council in Ireland, to decide and determine upon such Appeal, and to ascertain and determine the Rights or Title of any such Party, so far only as may relate to the Payment of any Composition for Tithes for the Term of Twenty one Years under the said recited Acts, or until such Right of Property shall be determined by any competent Tribunal or Court of Justice, but not any further, nor to any other Purpose; or it shall be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, by and with the Advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, to direct an Issue to be tried in any One of His Majesty’s Courts of Record in Dublin, for the Ascertainment of the Right or Title of any such Party to any Lands or Tenements as aforesaid.

On Appeal to Privy Council, they may decide on Right of Property, so far as relates to the Tithe Composition for 21 Years, or direct an Issue for ascertaining the Title.

‘ III. And be it further enacted, That on the Hearing and Decision of any Appeal against the Certificate of any Commissioners or Umpire under the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, it shall be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, with the Advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, to adjudicate and direct the Payment of any Costs to or by any of the Parties appealing or appealed against, in such Manner and to such Amount as shall seem fitting and expedient to such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council.

On Decision of any Appeal, the Privy Council may direct the Payment of Costs.

‘ IV. And Whereas in and by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of His Majesty’s Reign it is among other Things enacted, that in the Assessment and Applotment of any Composition for Tithes no Public Road or Highway, nor any Canal or Inland ‘ Navi-

Roads, &c. assessed before the passing of Act shall continue so until a new Assessment shall be made under this Act.

Where Roads &c. have been assessed, Parties interested may apply to Assistant Barrister at Sessions, who may alter the Assessment.

Navigation, nor any waste or uncultivated Land on the Sides of any such Road, Highway, Canal, or Inland Navigation, shall be assessed or charged to the raising of any Part of the Sum or Sums to be raised by such Assessment or Applotment; and that if any Assessment or Applotment had been made at any Time before the said Act, whereby any such Road, Highway, Canal, or Navigation, or any such waste or uncultivated Land, had been assessed or charged to any such Composition, such Assessment and Applotment should, as to such Road, Highway, Canal, or Navigation, and waste or uncultivated Land, cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable; and it is expedient that further Provision should be made relating to such Assessments and Applotments; Be it enacted, That every such Assessment or Applotment, which shall have been made at any Time before the passing of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, shall remain good, valid, and effectual; and that every Road, Highway, or Canal, or Inland Navigation, and all waste or uncultivated Land on the Sides of any such Road, Highway, Canal, or Inland Navigation, which shall have been subjected to such Assessment or Applotment before the passing of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, shall remain and continue liable to such Assessment and Applotment until a new or additional Assessment and Applotment shall be made within such Parish, pursuant to the Directions hereinafter contained; any thing in the said recited Act of the said Fifth Year to the contrary in any-wise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Assessment and Applotment of any Composition for Tithes shall have been made at any Time before the passing of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, whereby any such Road, Highway, Canal, or Navigation, or any such waste or uncultivated Land as aforesaid, shall have been assessed or charged to any Composition for Tithes, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons interested in any such Road, Highway, Canal, or Navigation, or in any other waste or uncultivated Land, or for any Incumbent or other Person entitled to such Composition, to apply to the Assistant Barrister at any Sessions to be holden for the County in which the Parish shall be situate in which such Assessment and Applotment shall be made, to revise such Assessment and Applotment, and to make a Re-assessment and Applotment of such Composition, in Manner hereinafter mentioned; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister to call for the Book in which such Assessment and Applotment shall be entered, and such Book shall be produced to such Assistant Barrister by the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall be; and it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister to alter and amend the Assessment and Applotment contained in such Book, by striking out any Assessment and Applotment made in respect of any such Road, Highway, Canal, or Navigation, or any such waste or uncultivated Land as aforesaid, and by adding to the Amount of the several Assessments and Applotments made in respect of the other Lands within the said Parish, according to their several Proportions, so much as shall be sufficient to make such Assessment and Applotment equal to the full Amount of the whole Composition

C A P. LXVII.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice at the holding of Petty Sessions by Justices of the Peace in Ireland.

[2d July 1827.]

‘ WHEREAS the holding of Petty Sessions by Justices of the Peace in Ireland has been found conducive to a better Administration of the Laws, and to the general Interests of His Majesty's Subjects within that Part of the United Kingdom: And Whereas it is expedient to afford additional Facilities for holding such Petty Sessions, and for securing a uniform and effectual Mode of Procedure therein; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace, save and except within the County of Cork, within their respective Jurisdictions, at the January Sessions to be holden next after the passing of this Act, to divide the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, for which such Sessions shall be holden, into such Districts, for the Purposes of this Act, as to them shall seem most expedient, fixing within every such District a Place or Places wherein the Petty Sessions shall be holden for such Districts respectively.

Counties, Cities, &c. divided into Districts for holding Petty Sessions.

‘ II. And Whereas in certain Parts of Ireland it may not be practicable to procure the constant Attendance of a sufficient Number

‘ Number of Justices of the Peace to constitute Petty Sessions ;
Be it enacted, That in case the Justices of the Peace of any County so assembled shall be of Opinion that any Part of such County ought not to be included in any District for the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to make an Order to that effect, and then and in such Case the Provisions of this Act shall not extend to such Part or Parts of any County as shall in such Order be declared not to be included in any District. .

Part of any County may not be included in any District.

III. And be it further enacted, That an Order in Writing shall be made by the said Courts of Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid, specifying the Boundaries of each and every such District, and of every Part or Parts of any County which shall not be included in any District, and the Names of every Place fixed for the holding of Petty Sessions ; which Order shall be entered in the Crown Book by the respective Clerks of the Peace, and a certified Copy of such Order transmitted by such Clerk of the Peace to the respective Secretaries to the Grand Juries, and shall be laid before the several Grand Juries at the Spring Assizes then next ensuing, and in the County of Dublin at the next ensuing presenting Term, and shall be printed with the Presentments granted at such Spring Assizes.

Extent of District, and Place fixed for holding Petty Sessions, to be entered in the Crown Books, and certified to the Secretaries of Grand Juries.

IV. Provided always, That in case at any October Quarter Sessions, after the First of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, Application in Writing, in Manner and Form as in the Schedule to this Act is set forth, under the Hands and Seals of Five or more Justices of the Peace, or of Three or more Justices within any local Jurisdiction, be made to the Justices assembled, praying an Alteration of any such District of Petty Sessions, or of the Place or Places wherein such Petty Sessions are holden, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices, within their respective Jurisdictions respectively, save and except in the County of Cork, at the January Sessions then next ensuing, to consider such Application, and to make such Order thereon respecting the Alteration applied for as shall to such Justices seem expedient, entering such Order in the Crown Book, and transmitting the same to the respective Secretaries to the Grand Juries, to be by them printed with the Presentments as aforesaid : Provided always, whenever any such Application shall be made at any October Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, that the Clerks of the Peace respectively shall give Notice thereof, by affixing a Copy of such Application upon the Court House Doors within their several Jurisdictions, and by advertising the same in like Manner as such Clerks of the Peace are now required to advertise the Time and Place at which the Courts of Quarter Sessions, or Adjournments thereof, are to be holden.

Justices may alter District and Place for holding Petty Sessions.

Notice to be given of Applications for Alteration.

‘ V. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act to divide the County of Cork, for the Purpose of holding additional Sessions therein, the said County is divided into Two Parts ; Be it enacted, That for the Purposes of carrying the present Act into Execution within the said County, by dividing the said County into Districts for the holding of Petty Sessions, and fixing the Places wherein such Petty Sessions shall be holden, or making any Alterations therein, the several Acts hereby directed to be done by the Justices of the Peace at the January Quarter Sessions, shall in the

When the Act shall be carried into Execution in the County of Cork.

County of Cork be performed at a General Meeting of Magistrates of the said County to be held in the City of Cork on the Second Day of the Summer Assizes next after the passing of this Act, or next after the serving any such Notice at the October Quarter Sessions as aforesaid.

Part of a County may be appropriated to a District of adjoining County for the Purposes of this Act.

‘ VI. And Whereas for the due Execution of Justice on the ‘ Borders of adjoining Counties it has been found expedient to ‘ appoint some Persons to be Justices of the Peace for Two or ‘ more Counties, and such Justices have hitherto held Petty Ses‘ sions of the Peace at some convenient Place of one County on ‘ the Borders of some other County or Counties, and it might be ‘ attended with considerable Inconvenience if such Practice ‘ should be discontinued;’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace acting within any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, in the Execution of this Act, to appropriate any District of any such County adjoining any other County as Part of a District of such adjoining County, wherein Petty Sessions shall be holden in pursuance of this Act, at such Place as shall have been or shall be fixed for that Purpose in pursuance of this Act, such Place not being at a greater Distance than Five Miles from any Part of the District in a different County to be annexed as aforesaid, and such Annexation being made in the same Manner as the Appropriation of any District for the Purpose of holding Petty Sessions of the Peace is directed to be made by this Act; and such Appropriation shall be entered and certified in the same Manner as the several other Districts within the same County are required to be entered and certified by this Act; and all other Proceedings shall be had respecting such District as by this Act are provided concerning any other District within such County; and such Appropriation shall also be certified to the Court of Quarter Sessions for the County to or District of which such Part of another County shall be so appropriated, and all Proceedings shall be had thereupon as if such Part of a County so appropriated to a District in another County had been within such last-mentioned County: Provided always,
that such Proceedings shall be only before Justices of the Peace qualified to act for the County to which such appropriated District shall properly belong, and shall be considered as if actually done within such County, and not within the County to which such District shall be annexed as aforesaid.

Grand Jury to present an annual Sum for Justice Room.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Grand Juries to present an annual Sum, not exceeding Ten Pounds, for the Rent of a public Justice Room,
not being in a House wherein Spirituous or fermented Liquors are sold, in each of the Places wherein such Petty Sessions shall have been appointed to be openly held as aforesaid; provided that wherever a public Court House shall have been built and be maintained at any Place so appointed, no such Presentment shall be made, and the Petty Sessions shall be holden in such public Court House, and not elsewhere; provided also, that no such Presentment be made for such Justice Room, unless it shall be proved that Six Meetings of Justices during the Six Months immediately preceding such Presentment shall have been held therein.

IX. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to the Justices of such Petty Sessions, if they shall so think fit, to keep or require to be kept an Account of all such Fees; and in case such Fees shall amount to any greater Sum than such Justices shall consider to be and shall have been fixed as an adequate Remuneration for such Clerk as aforesaid, to appropriate any Balance remaining after the Payment of such Clerk to the Purchase of Stationery and necessary Books for the Use of such Petty Sessions as aforesaid. Appropriation of Fees.

X. And be it further enacted, That a printed Table of the said Fees shall be affixed within every Court House or public Justice Room wherein such Petty Sessions are holden; and if any other or greater Fees than those set forth in the Schedule are demanded or taken for any Act, Matter, or Thing done at the said Petty Sessions, any Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered by Civil Bill by any Person who shall sue for the same: Provided nevertheless, that no Fee whatsoever shall be demanded, taken, or received by any Clerk to such Petty Sessions, or by any Clerk to any Justice of the Peace, or by any other Person, for any Summons, Warrant, Information, Recognizance, or other Magisterial Act, done by any Justice at any other Time, Place, or any other Manner than at Petty Sessions. A Table of Fees to be affixed in every Court House.

XI. And be it further enacted, That a Registry or Record in Writing shall be kept by each and every Clerk of Petty Sessions of all Acts or Orders and Proceedings done at such Petty Sessions, whether in Civil or Criminal Cases, in the Manner and Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed; such Registry or Record to be signed, on each Day upon which such Petty Sessions shall be holden, by all the Justices present; and that no Summons, Warrant, Conviction, Committal, Information, Recognizance, or any other Magisterial Act or Order of any Kind, be issued or signed at such Petty Sessions, without the making an Entry thereof in the said Record or Registry. A Registry of all Acts and Proceedings to be kept.

XII. Informations, &c. to be transmitted to Clerk of the Crown.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which it becomes necessary for a single Justice to act magisterially, not being in Petty Sessions, save and except in the issue of Summonses, such Magistrates do report such Case, together with the Informations taken or Recognizances sworn and acknowledged, to the Petty Sessions then next ensuing, to be holden for the District in Entry to be made of all Cases where a single Justice acts.

List of Informations, &c. where a single Justice acts, to be laid before Quarter Sessions.

Warrant, &c. to be signed by Two Justices.

Justices of Petty Sessions may determine Cases, although Complaint made before other Justices.

Chief and other Constables shall attend the Petty Sessions, and execute the Orders and Warrants of the Magistrates ;

but shall not be employed by them in the Levy of Rents, &c.

in which such Case had arisen ; and that a particular Entry be made in the Registry of such Petty Sessions of every such Case.

XIV. XV. And be it further enacted, That every Warrant, Information, Conviction, Committal, Recognizance, or Order of the Justices at Petty Sessions, shall be signed by Two Justices at the least, and not by any One Person as Chairman and on the Behalf of others ; and that no Summons, Warrant, or Order be signed by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, unless the Blanks in the same shall have been first duly filled up.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justices at Petty Sessions to hear and proceed and determine upon any Case in which such Justices have Jurisdiction by Law, although the Summons for the same may have been issued, and the Complaint received, by any other Justice acting singly, or by any other Justices at a previous Meeting of such Petty Sessions, in such and the like Manner as if the first Complaint was made, and the Summons issued, by the same Justices before whom the subsequent Proceedings were had and taken.

XVII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Appointment of Constables, and to secure the effectual Performance of the Duties of their Office ; and for the Appointment of Magistrates in Ireland in certain Cases, it is amongst other Things enacted, that all and every Chief Constables and other Constables shall, when required, attend on the Magistrates of the County at their Sessions or elsewhere, and shall obey and execute all the Orders, Warrants, and Commands of such Magistrates : And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Competency or Liability of such Constables to execute certain Civil Warrants of such Magistrates ; Be it therefore declared and enacted, That every Chief Constable and other Constable shall attend, and every such Chief Constable and other Constable is hereby required (when not engaged on actual Duty) to attend at the several Petty Sessions which shall be held at the respective Places where such Constables shall be respectively stationed ; and that every such Chief Constable and other Constable shall obey and execute all Warrants, Orders, and Commands of such Justices in Petty Sessions ; and shall also obey and execute all Warrants, Orders, and Commands of the Magistrates of the County in their Sessions in all Cases, Civil as well as Criminal : Provided always, that no such Constable shall be employed, under such Authority, in the Recovery of Tithes, or in the Levy of Rents by Distress, or in the levying of Fines or Penalties under any Act or Acts relating to the Revenue in Ireland, or in the enforcing of any Act or Acts relating to the Game Laws, or any Laws for the Preservation of Game or Fish, except only in Cases where forcible Resistance shall have been actually made, and been proved by Information taken on Oath.

visions of the said last-recited Act have been found insufficient for the Purposes for which the same was passed : And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate the several Boards of Customs, and also the several Boards of Excise, of Great Britain and Ireland ; and in order further to carry into Effect the Uniformity of System and Management of the Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, which was to a certain Extent affected by the said last-mentioned Act, it will be expedient to place the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland under the Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, appointed and to be appointed under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for uniting the Offices of Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of the Crown and Surveyor General of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases, with such Powers and Provisions as are hereinafter contained ; and it will also be expedient to render the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland inalienable, except under the Powers and Provisions hereinafter contained ;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the said recited Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty (except so far as regards the Payment and Recovery of Rents which have been purchased under the Provisions thereof for the Use of the Purchaser, and the Extinguishment of Rents and the Discharge of Lands where Rents have been purchased under the Provisions thereof for the Purpose of being extinguished, and also except the Provision contained in the said Act for investing any Sums of Money paid under the said Act in the Purchase of Stocks, Funds, or Annuities, transferable at the Bank of Ireland, in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury) shall be and the same is hereby repealed.*

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That the Repeal of the said Act shall not operate to revive any Act thereby repealed, nor shall the same prejudice any Sale, Composition, Mortgage, or other Act, Matter, or Thing made or done under and by virtue of that Act, but the same shall remain as good, valid, and effectual, and all the Provisions in the said Act contained, with respect to Rents or other Property to be purchased under the said Act, shall, so far as regards any Rents or other Property already sold or contracted for under the Provisions of the said Act, remain and be of as full Force and Virtue as if the said Act had not been repealed.

III. And be it further enacted, That all the said several other recited Acts not hereinbefore altogether repealed shall be and the same are hereby, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so far as they may respectively interfere with or be repugnant

nant to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, but not further or otherwise, repealed.

‘ IV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of ‘ Ireland in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty ‘ King William the Third, intituled An Act for making the Col- ‘ lectors Receipts for Quit Rent, Crown Rent, and other Rents due ‘ to the Crown, full and legal Discharges for the same; and for ‘ limiting their Fees thereon; after reciting that the Rents due to ‘ the Crown were levied by Collectors appointed in the several ‘ Districts of that Kingdom, which was principally intended for ‘ the Ease of the Subject, by saving them the Trouble, Danger, ‘ and Expence of sending their Money to Dublin, to be there ‘ paid into the Treasury; and that Doubts had arisen whether ‘ the Acquittances given by such Collectors were sufficient Dis‘ charges to the Persons paying the said Rents; it was enacted, ‘ that the Acquittances already given by the Collectors duly ap‘ pointed to receive the same Rents, as also all Acquittances that ‘ thereafter should be given by any such Collector during the ‘ Time the said Collectors were or should be so employed, should ‘ be good and valid in Law to all Intents and Purposes, against ‘ His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and that all such ‘ Acquittances so given or thereafter to be given should be as ‘ good and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as an Exchequer ‘ Acquittance duly passed and entered in the several Offices of ‘ the Exchequer; and it was further enacted, that the said Col‘ lectors might demand and receive the respective Fees therein-‘ after mentioned, and no more or other Fee; that was to say, for ‘ every Acquittance they should give for any of the said Rents ‘ for any Sum above Five Shillings and not exceeding Twenty ‘ Shillings, the Sum of Sixpence and no more; and for every ‘ Sum above Twenty Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds, ‘ the Sum of One Shilling and no more; and for every Sum ‘ above Five Pounds and not exceeding Fifteen Pounds, the Sum ‘ of One Shilling and Sixpence and no more; and for every Sum ‘ above Fifteen Pounds, the Sum or Fee of Two Shillings; and in ‘ no Case to receive any more for any One Acquittance than Two ‘ Shillings; and after reciting that several Persons stood charged ‘ with several Rents for several Parcels of their Lands and Tene‘ ments, the same being granted under several and distinct Rents ‘ to themselves or others under whom they claimed, for which ‘ formerly several Acquittances used to be given, though paid at ‘ the same Time and by the same Person, for which said several ‘ Acquittances distinct Fees had been paid, it was further enacted, ‘ that where One Person stood charged with the Payment of ‘ several and distinct Sums in respect of several Parcels of their ‘ Lands and Tenements, or where the same was in charge in the ‘ Name of other Persons not in Possession of such Lands, the ‘ several Collectors should, on Receipt of the said Rents or any ‘ Part thereof, give to the Person so in Possession as aforesaid, ‘ and so paying the same, One Acquittance for what he should so ‘ pay, which Acquittance should distinctly mention as well the ‘ Lands and Tenements as the Rent so paid, and for what Gale
 ‘ the same was so paid, and by whom, for which One Acquittance ‘ the said Collectors should require no other or greater Fee than

‘ as aforesaid ; and after reciting that the several Acquittances to ‘ be made and given pursuant to that Act might be lost or mislaid, ‘ to the Prejudice of the Person therein concerned, for Prevention ‘ thereof it was further enacted, that the Collectors should every ‘ Year prepare a Book, wherein they should enter all the Receipts ‘ or Acquittances by them given for all and every the aforesaid ‘ Rents, under their Hands, and in the Presence of the Party ‘ paying the same, to which Receipt the said Parties, or any ‘ other on their Behalf, might set their Names ; for every which ‘ Entry the said Collectors might demand and receive Two Pence ‘ over and above the Fees aforesaid ; which Book the said Col‘ lectors, and every of them respectively, should yearly before the ‘ stating of their Accounts return, under their Hands and on their ‘ Oaths, into the Office of the Auditor General, where the same ‘ should remain and be kept, not only as a Charge on such Col‘ lectors respectively, but also as a Discharge to the Subject for ‘ all Sums thereby appearing to be paid as aforesaid : And Whereas ‘ it is desirable that the Provisions hereinafter contained, with ‘ respect to the Fees on the Receipt of Quit Rents, Crown Rents, ‘ Composition, and other Rents payable to the Crown, should be ‘ substituted in lieu of the Provisions of the said Act of the Ninth ‘ Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third ;
 Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the said Act (but without Prejudice to the Validity of Receipts heretofore given in pursuance thereof) shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act all the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland shall be inalienable, except in the Manner and under the Powers and Provisions hereinafter contained; and the same (with the Exceptions hereinafter particularly mentioned) shall be under the exclusive Management of the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, appointed and to be appointed under and by virtue of the said Act of the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for uniting the Offices of Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of the Crown and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases; subject only to the Control of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

C A P. LXVII.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice at the holding of Petty Sessions by Justices of the Peace in Ireland.

[2d July 1827.]

‘ WHEREAS the holding of Petty Sessions by Justices of the Peace in Ireland has been found conducive to a better Administration of the Laws, and to the general Interests of His Majesty's Subjects within that Part of the United Kingdom: And Whereas it is expedient to afford additional Facilities for holding such Petty Sessions, and for securing a uniform and effectual Mode of Procedure therein; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace, save and except within the County of Cork, within their respective Jurisdictions, at the January Sessions to be holden next after the passing of this Act, to divide the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, for which such Sessions shall be holden, into such Districts, for the Purposes of this Act, as to them shall seem most expedient, fixing within every such District a Place or Places wherein the Petty Sessions shall be holden for such Districts respectively.

Counties, Cities, &c. divided into Districts for holding Petty Sessions.

‘ II. And Whereas in certain Parts of Ireland it may not be practicable to procure the constant Attendance of a sufficient Number

‘ Number of Justices of the Peace to constitute Petty Sessions ;
Be it enacted, That in case the Justices of the Peace of any County so assembled shall be of Opinion that any Part of such County ought not to be included in any District for the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to make an Order to that effect, and then and in such Case the Provisions of this Act shall not extend to such Part or Parts of any County as shall in such Order be declared not to be included in any District.

Part of any County may not be included in any District.

III. And be it further enacted, That an Order in Writing shall be made by the said Courts of Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid, specifying the Boundaries of each and every such District, and of every Part or Parts of any County which shall not be included in any District, and the Names of every Place fixed for the holding of Petty Sessions ; which Order shall be entered in the Crown Book by the respective Clerks of the Peace, and a certified Copy of such Order transmitted by such Clerk of the Peace to the respective Secretaries to the Grand Juries, and shall be laid before the several Grand Juries at the Spring Assizes then next ensuing, and in the County of Dublin at the next ensuing presenting Term, and shall be printed with the Presentments granted at such Spring Assizes.

Extent of District, and Place fixed for holding Petty Sessions, to be entered in the Crown Books, and certified to the Secretaries of Grand Juries.

IV. Provided always, That in case at any October Quarter Sessions, after the First of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, Application in Writing, in Manner and Form as in the Schedule to this Act is set forth, under the Hands and Seals of Five or more Justices of the Peace, or of Three or more Justices within any local Jurisdiction, be made to the Justices assembled, praying an Alteration of any such District of Petty Sessions, or of the Place or Places wherein such Petty Sessions are holden, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices, within their respective Jurisdictions respectively, save and except in the County of Cork, at the January Sessions then next ensuing, to consider such Application, and to make such Order thereon respecting the Alteration applied for as shall to such Justices seem expedient, entering such Order in the Crown Book, and transmitting the same to the respective Secretaries to the Grand Juries, to be by them printed with the Presentments as aforesaid : Provided always, whenever any such Application shall be made at any October Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, that the Clerks of the Peace respectively shall give Notice thereof, by affixing a Copy of such Application upon the Court House Doors within their several Jurisdictions, and by advertising the same in like Manner as such Clerks of the Peace are now required to advertise the Time and Place at which the Courts of Quarter Sessions, or Adjournments thereof, are to be holden.

Justices may alter District and Place for holding Petty Sessions.

Notice to be given of Applications for Alteration.

‘ V. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act to divide the County of Cork, for the Purpose of holding additional Sessions therein, the said County is divided into Two Parts ; Be it enacted, That for the Purposes of carrying the present Act into Execution within the said County, by dividing the said County into Districts for the holding of Petty Sessions, and fixing the Places wherein such Petty Sessions shall be holden, or making any Alterations therein, the several Acts hereby directed to be done by the Justices of the Peace at the January Quarter Sessions, shall in the

County may be
appropriated to
a District of
adjoining
County for the Purposes of this
Act.

‘ VI. And Whereas for the due Execution of Justice on the ‘ Borders of adjoining Counties it has been found expedient to ‘ appoint some Persons to be Justices of the Peace for Two or ‘ more Counties, and such Justices have hitherto held Petty Ses‘ sions of the Peace at some convenient Place of one County on ‘ the Borders of some other County or Counties, and it might be ‘ attended with considerable Inconvenience if such Practice ‘ should be discontinued ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace acting within any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, in the Execution of this Act, to appropriate any District of any such County adjoining
any other County as Part of a District of such adjoining County, wherein Petty Sessions shall be holden in pursuance of this Act,
at such Place as shall have been or shall be fixed for that Purpose
in pursuance of this Act, such Place not being at a greater Distance than Five Miles from any Part of the District in a different County to be annexed as aforesaid, and such Annexation being made in the same Manner as the Appropriation of any District
for the Purpose of holding Petty Sessions of the Peace is directed to be made by this Act ; and such Appropriation shall be entered
and certified in the same Manner as the several other Districts
within the same County are required to be entered and certified
by this Act ; and all other Proceedings shall be had respecting such District as by this Act are provided concerning any other District within such County ; and such Appropriation shall also be certified to the Court of Quarter Sessions for the County to or District of which such Part of another County shall be so appropriated, and all Proceedings shall be had thereupon as if such
Part of a County so appropriated to a District in another County had been within such last-mentioned County : Provided always,
that such Proceedings shall be only before Justices of the Peace
qualified to act for the County to which such appropriated District shall properly belong, and shall be considered as if actually done within such County, and not within the County to which such District shall be annexed as aforesaid.

present an annual Sum for

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Grand Juries to present an annual Sum,
not exceeding Ten Pounds, for the Rent of a public Justice Room,
not being in a House wherein Spirituous or fermented Liquors
are sold, in each of the Places wherein such Petty Sessions shall have been appointed to be openly held as aforesaid ; provided that wherever a public Court House shall have been built and be maintained at any Place so appointed, no such Presentment shall be made, and the Petty Sessions shall be holden in such public Court House, and not elsewhere ; provided also, that no such Present-
ment be made for such Justice Room, unless it shall be proved Appropriation of Fees.

X. And be it further enacted, That a printed Table of the said Fees shall be affixed within every Court House or public Justice Room wherein such Petty Sessions are holden; and if any other or greater Fees than those set forth in the Schedule are demanded or taken for any Act, Matter, or Thing done at the said Petty Sessions, any Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered by Civil Bill by any Person who shall sue for the same: Provided nevertheless, that no Fee whatsoever shall be demanded, taken, or received by any Clerk to such Petty Sessions, or by any Clerk to any Justice of the Peace, or by any other Person, for any Summons, Warrant, Information, Recognizance, or other Magisterial Act, done by any Justice at any other Time, Place, or any other Manner than at Petty Sessions. ‘ Cases, it was enacted, that from and after the First Day of June
 ‘ One thousand eight hundred and three no Person should be ‘ arrested or held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out ‘ of any Court within those Parts of the United Kingdom of ‘ Great Britain and Ireland called England and Ireland, for a

 Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assem-

 First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven no Person shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court, where the Cause of Action shall not have originally amounted to the Sum of Twenty Pounds or upwards, over and above and exclusive of any Costs, Charges, and Expences that may have been incurred, recovered, or become chargeable in or about the suing for or recovering the same or any Part thereof; and that in all Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to Twenty Pounds or upwards, exclusive of such Costs, Charges, and Expences as aforesaid, and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall proceed by the way of Process against the Person, he, she, or they shall not arrest or cause to be arrested the Body of the Defendant or Defendants, but shall serve him, her, or them personally, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, with a Copy of the Process and Proceedings thereupon, in such Manner as by the said Act of the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First is provided in Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to Ten Pounds or upwards in any superior Court,

 ‘ Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ‘ Persons arrested upon Mesne Process were enabled, in lieu of ‘ giving Bail to the Sheriff, to deposit in the Hands of the Sheriff ‘ the Sum indorsed upon the Writ, together with Ten Pounds in ‘ addition to such Sum, to answer the Costs which might accrue with the Sheriff pursuant to 49 G. S. c. 46. may, instead of perfecting Special Bail, allow Deposit to be paid into Court; or if he remains in Custody, or gives Bail to the Sheriff, he may pay the Debt into Court, with 20% to answer Costs, and file Common Bail.

such Arrest: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act, and to enable Persons who have been arrested to deposit or pay into the Court in which the Writ shall be returnable the Sum indorsed upon the Writ, together with an additional Sum as a Security for Costs, to abide the Event of the Suit, instead of putting in and perfecting Bail in the said Action; Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases in which any Defendant shall have been discharged from Arrest upon making such Deposit as is required by the said recited Act, and the Sum so deposited shall have been paid into Court, it shall be lawful for such Defendant, instead of putting in and perfecting Special Bail in the Action, according to the Course and Practice of the Court, to allow the Sum so deposited with the Sheriff, and by him paid into Court as aforesaid, together with the additional Sum of Ten Pounds, to be paid into Court by such Defendant as a further Security for the Costs of the Action, to remain in the Court to abide the Event of the Suit; and in all Cases where any Defendant shall have been arrested and shall have given Bail to the Sheriff, or shall have been arrested and remain in Custody, it shall be lawful for such last-mentioned Defendant, instead of putting in and perfecting Special Bail, to deposit and pay into the said Court the Sum indorsed upon the Writ, together with the Amount of the King's Fine, if any, upon the Original Writ, and the further Sum of Twenty Pounds as a Security for the Costs of the Action, there to remain to abide the Event of the Suit; and thereupon the said Defendant may, and he is hereby required to enter a Common Appearance, or file Common Bail in the Action, within such Time as he would have been required to have put in and perfected Special Bail in the Action according to the Course of the said Court, or in default thereof the Plaintiff in the Action is hereby empowered to enter such Common Appearance or file Common Bail for the said Defendant, and the Cause may proceed as if the Defendant had put in and perfected Special Bail; and in case Judgment in the said Action shall be given for the Plaintiff, he shall be entitled, by Order of the Court, upon Motion made for that Purpose, to receive the said Money so remaining in, or so deposited or paid into the Court as aforesaid, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy the Sum recovered by the Judgment and the Costs of the Application; and if Judgment be given in the said Action for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff discontinue his Suit, or be otherwise barred, or in case the Sum deposited and paid into Court be more than sufficient to satisfy the Plaintiff, the said Money so deposited or paid into Court, or so much thereof as shall remain, shall by Order of the Court, upon Motion to be made for that Purpose, be repaid to such Defendant.

Defendant may receive such Deposit and Payment out of Court, upon perfecting Special Bail.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Defendant who hath made his Election to make such Deposit and Payment as aforesaid, at any Time in the Progress of the Cause before Issue joined in Law or Fact, or final or interlocutory Judgment signed, to receive the same out of Court, by Order of the said Court, upon putting in and perfecting Special Bail in the Cause, and Payment of such Costs to the Plaintiff as the said Court shall direct.

IV. Pro-

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Defendant who shall have put in and perfected Special Bail in any Cause, upon Motion to the Court in which the Action is brought, if the Court shall so think fit, to deposit and pay into Court the Sum which would have been deposited and paid in case the Defendant had originally elected so to do, together with such further Sum, to answer the Costs, as the Court may direct, to abide the Event of the said Suit, and to be disposed of in manner aforesaid; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court to direct a Common Appearance to be entered, or Common Bail to be filed for the Defendant, and an Exoneretur to be entered upon the Bail Piece in the said Cause.

Defendant, after perfecting Bail, may make Deposit and Payment, and file Common Bail.

V. And Whereas the Provisions in the said Acts authorizing Plaintiffs, in default of Appearance of Defendants, to enter a Common Appearance, or file Common Bail, as therein directed, are not deemed to extend to Proceedings by Original and other Writs whereupon no Capias is issued, and it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said former Acts to such Proceedings; Be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall proceed by Original or other Writ, and Summons or Attachment thereupon, or by Subpœna and Attachment thereupon, in any Action at Law against any Person or Persons not having Privilege of Parliament, no Writ of Distringas shall issue for Default of Appearance, but the Defendant or Defendants shall be served personally with the Summons or Attachment, at the Foot of which shall be written a Notice, informing the Defendant or Defendants of the Intent and Meaning of such Service, to the Effect following:
